POINT GREY MEN DENY GUILT IN ABDUCTION CASE

Commissioner H. O. McDonald, Chief John Murdock and Sergeant Percy Kirkham Are on Their Defence at Wong Hearing in Assize Court in Vancouver; Mr. Justice Morrison Presiding.

Vancouver, Nov. 11.—Three Point Grey police officials, Commissioner H. O. McDonald, Chief Constable John Murdock and Sergeant Percy Kirkham, were arraigned in the assize court here to-day on charges of complicity in the abduction on March 20 of Wong Foon Sing and from the prisoners' dock pleaded not guilty.

The trial is proceeding before Mr. Justice Morrison. Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald, who had conducted the assizes since their inception on September 29, left to conduct the Kamloops assizes, which opened to-day.

The four charges, confronting the accused, are kidnapping, assaulting and seizing, confining and imprisoning Wong Foon Sing.

Alex. Henderson, K.C., and Stuart Henderson of Victoria are defence counsel.

Only one juror remained of the complete panel of forty-eight after the defence had challenged twenty-three and Prosecutor C. W. Craig, K.C., had stood nine aside and challenged three. The jury, as empanelled, includes two women.

Before calling to the witness box Oscar B. V. Robinson, who was convicted on Saturday for kidnapping Wong and was recommended to mercy by the jury, Mr. Craig asked that the jury accept his evidence which supported the case of the prosecution and disbelieve him when he evened the prosecution.

"We have reached now what you might think is the most important case in this assize," said Mr. Craig, in opening his case in an address to the jury. "Anything to do with the administration of justice, and whether justice is administered with an even hand, is a most important matter to be dealt with by a jury."

"In doing what these men are charged to have done you might conclude they were actuated by motives which commend themselves to you—that is, the object in their hearts was to find the murderer of Janet Smith. On this point you will have to consider that good motives are no excuse for committing a crime, and you will have to fortify yourselves to do your duty notwithstanding you might think behind it all they were trying to do a good purpose."

The prosecutor outlined the evidence which he proposed to adduce. He said Robinson was in the employ of the Point Grey police and was appointed by the commissioners to investigate the Janet Smith death mystery.

It is probable the Ministers will really get down to work next week and frequent sittings of the Cabinet will take place.

JUGOSLAVIAN STATEMENT
Belgrade, Jugoslavia, Nov. 11.—Foreign Minister Mincich, answering interpellations in Parliament, said it had been proved the recent incidents in Trieste, although they had resulted in an attack on the Slovene newspaper, had not been directed solely against the Slovene minority. He pointed out that the Italian newspaper La Pera and several Italian houses had been damaged.

The Foreign Minister concluded by deploring the anti-Italian manifestations through Jugoslavia last Sunday which were marked by the burning of Italian flags.

APOLOGY GIVEN
The Yugoslavian Minister in Rome has been ordered to offer an apology for the flag incidents.

IMPRESSIONS AT UNVEILING OF SCHOOL MEMORIAL

Lieut.-Governor Officiated at Ceremony at High School To-day

Poignant memories of students whose laughing voices once echoed through its corridors and who, when the call came, "laid the world away and poured out the red, sweet wine of youth" were recalled this morning at the Victoria High School when Lieutenant-Governor Walter C. Nichol unveiled the handsome memorial tablet erected to the boys who made the supreme sacrifice in the Great War.

Paris, Nov. 11.—A ministerial crisis for the Poincare Cabinet was averted, or at least postponed probably until early next week, when the finance committee of the Chamber of Deputies adjourned to-day to give the Premier an opportunity to draw up a compromise plan which is expected to rally the support of the Socialists.

CHURCH LEADERS SEEK JOINT AGREEMENT ON CHURCH UNION WITHOUT LEGISLATIVE ACTION

Conferences between church unionists and anti-unionists during the last few days probably will result in satisfactory settlement of church property distribution and prevent the question from being opened up again in the Legislature. This announcement was made by leading church unionists here to-day, following informal discussion of the matter on the mainland.

Under present plans no further legislative action will be required to settle the property question. This arrangement will be welcomed by the Legislature which is not anxious to grapple with the issue again at its present session.

While the commission which was to have distributed church property between unionists and those who did not favor fusion has not been established, the division of assets will go on anyway if present arrangements are carried out. The property under this proposal will be divided according to friendly agreement between the two parties concerned.

It may be necessary, in carrying out the church union act as it stands at present, to appoint the property

WAR DEAD HONORED BY CANADA TO-DAY

Citizens From Coast to Coast Paused to Remember Heroes of Conflict

Wheels of Commerce and Industry of Country Stopped Briefly at 11 a.m.

Ottawa, Nov. 11. (Canadian Press)—Canada paused to-day to honor the memory of those who fell in the Great War. For two minutes at 11 o'clock the wheels of commerce and industry were still while the Dominion joined with the rest of the Empire in tribute to those who gave all they had to the Allied Cause.

The ceremonies in Ottawa this year were reserved until the evening. They will open with a military parade along the streets to Parliament Hill, where a cenotaph has been erected.

The Governor-General and Lady Byng, of Vimy, Premier King, Mr. Meighen, Leader of the Opposition, and chief figures in the political life of Canada will attend.

After darkness has settled down over Parliament Hill hundreds of veterans and thousands of other civilians will gather in the shadow of Victory Tower to lay poppy wreaths at the foot of the white cenotaph and to take part in a memorial service. Great floodlights will give all needed illumination.

IMPRESSIVE SCENE AT UNVEILING OF SCHOOL MEMORIAL

Lieut.-Governor Officiated at Ceremony at High School To-day

Poignant memories of students whose laughing voices once echoed through its corridors and who, when the call came, "laid the world away and poured out the red, sweet wine of youth" were recalled this morning at the Victoria High School when Lieutenant-Governor Walter C. Nichol unveiled the handsome memorial tablet erected to the boys who made the supreme sacrifice in the Great War.

The ceremony was an impressive one. Perhaps the most impressive moment was that when the two minutes silence was observed. In that gathering of nearly 1,200, not a finger stirred as silent tribute was paid to those who once had been numbered among the ranks of the school.

All of the students and their teachers were assembled in the auditorium, and in the body of the hall seats were reserved for the parents.

Coincidental with the presidential ceremony at Arlington, government business in Washington was suspended for a minute or two, as a tribute of silence to the war. This was in accordance with the desire of the President and his Cabinet, who agreed yesterday that the nation could thus fittingly observe the day.

APPLE LOSSES IN ONTARIO ARE HEAVY

Unseasonable Weather Destroyed 30,000 Barrels in Georgian Bay District

Toronto, Nov. 11.—The cold, unseasonable weather has destroyed over 30,000 barrels of the very finest apples in the Georgian Bay district, the Ontario Department of Agriculture announces.

"Some individuals have lost as many as 2,500 barrels," stated the department's local representative, Mr. J. H. Macdonald, who is in charge of the Government describing the "October apple tragedy." Other districts report similar losses. In Huron County one individual lost 2,000 barrels, and other losses range from 1,000 barrels to a few barrels. Nothing of a similarly serious nature can be recalled within the past fifty to sixty years.

Sugar beet growers report the worst season in twenty years. From Wellington County comes the following report of loss of another character. "Thousands of acres of fall wheat in North Wellington have been ruined by wireworms. There appears to have been a second crop of worms."

AFFECTING SCENES MARK ARMISTICE OBSERVATION AT NEW WAR MEMORIAL

Hundreds Bare Heads in Downpour of Rain to Silent Tribute to Those Who Fell in Great War; Rev. William Carroll Overseas Chaplain Conducts Simple But Impressive Ceremony at Parliament Buildings.

Victoria's observation of the armistice period to-day proved that years have failed to dim the memory of those who fell in five grim years of war which ended six years ago. The crowd that assembled at the simple but impressive ceremony held at the new war memorial on the green lawns in front of the Parliament Buildings was as large as those which gathered in the years immediately following the peace. It represented the government of British Columbia, service and ex-service men's associations, ladies' patriotic and other organizations and scores of relatives of those who laid down their lives. Among those at the ceremony the faces of many ladies who worked ardently for the men when they were overseas and for the wounded when they returned from the battlefields were noted.

KING GEORGE LAID WREATH AT CENOTAPH

He and Queen Mary and Princes at Armistice Day Ceremony in London

London, Nov. 11.—Great Britain observed Armistice Day to-day with greater solemnity and on a more extensive scale than at any previous time since the cessation of hostilities seven years ago.

The principal services in memory of those who fell in the Great War were held at the Cenotaph, where King George and his three sons, King George, Prince of Wales, Prince of York and Prince of Gloucester, laid wreaths. Queen Mary, the Queen of Spain and other royal and prominent persons being present.

Premier Baldwin and the members of his Government, former Prime Minister Lloyd George and Ramsay MacDonald, Hon. P. C. Larkin, Canadian High Commissioner in London, and the High Commissioners of the other Dominions, with detachments of the naval and military and air forces, gathered there before the ceremony, after which the base was literally covered in flowers.

TRIBUTES TO WAR DEAD PAID IN U.S.

President Coolidge Laid Armistice Day Wreath on Unknown Soldier's Tomb

Washington, Nov. 11.—A two-minute space of silence was observed at 11 o'clock throughout the United States, as the seventh anniversary of the signing of the Armistice was celebrated to-day.

Leading the nation in its tribute to those who fell in the struggle, President Coolidge drew his Cabinet members about him and went to Arlington National Cemetery, where a wreath was laid on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

In most of the larger cities, colorful parades in which war veterans took the lead marked the day's activities.

What British Columbia's Legislators Are Doing

Now it seems that the Legislature is not going to make a short, snappy session of it after all. This had been suspected from the beginning although members had announced, more in pious hope than in real expectation, that five weeks legislating would be plenty. At its present rate the session would finish some time next Spring but plans announced to-day indicate that nothing of this sort will be allowed to occur. If the debate on the Speech from the Throne shows signs of a lingering life it will be snuffed out gently but firmly by the end of this week or the beginning of next. All members will be given ample opportunity to say all they have to say but they will have to do it at night sittings. The House will convene on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week should many more speakers in the present debate appear. Few Liberals are anxious to take part in the debate but how many more Conservatives intend to speak is a matter which the Government does not pretend to know anything about. Speeches by Hon. J. D. Macdonald, Minister of Finance, on Thursday, and by Hon. A. M. Manson, Attorney-General, on Friday will just about wind up the Government's case.

Premier Apologizes To E. C. Warren For Refusal to Hear Him

Premier Oliver to-day wrote to E. C. Warren, formerly of Florida, but for the last year a resident of Victoria, explaining why he had refused to hear him before the Cabinet yesterday when a delegation of business men appeared to discuss the succession duty. The Premier stated that he had misunderstood Mr. Warren's position when he appeared with yesterday's delegation. He had thought, he said, that Mr. Warren had just come from Florida and did not know that he had recently invested on a large scale here. Mr. Oliver said he keenly regretted the incident which had occurred simply on account of a misunderstanding.

of the boy heroes. On the platform, which was flanked with laurel, reposed the wreaths which later were placed at the foot of the tablet. Occupying a conspicuous position on one wall was the huge "Service" flag, presented by the Women's Canadian Club, its blue and scarlet maple leaves symbolizing the students who fought in the great war.

Magistrate George Jay acted as chairman, and with him on the platform were, in addition to those who took part in the ceremony, Superintendent S. J. Willis, Principal Paul of Victoria College, Principal Smith of the High School, representatives of the Board of School Trustees, and women's organizations and other specially-invited guests.

BRIEF SERVICE

The arrival of the Lieutenant-Governor was heralded by the buglers of the school's cadet corps, and followed by the singing of the National Anthem. The recital of the Lord's Prayer, the singing of "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and the recital of the "Service" flag, constituted the brief service.

In the brief address preceding the unveiling of the memorial, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor made reference to the circumstances under which the memorial tablet had been executed by Earl J. Clarke of the High School staff.

He paid warm tribute to Mr. Clarke for his work, which was more than a work of art, it was an expression of the divine fire, said His Honor. The daily sight of the memorial should prove an inspiration to the boys and girls of to-day and of coming generations. His Honor in conclusion expressed the hope that "in this world where joy and sorrow are so closely mingled, you may be spared the grief of losing a loved one in your lifetime such a cataclysm of strife and horror as took so many of the finest young lives in the dark years of 1914-1918."

CADETS STAND GUARD

The Lieutenant-Governor then proceeded to the main corridor, where Cadets with reversed arms stood on guard before the memorial. The release of the flag velling the tablet was accompanied by the sounding of the Last Post by cadet buglers.

Among the wreaths placed at the foot of the memorial were those from the Students' Association, the teaching staff of the High School, the Women's Canadian Club, Camosun Chapter, and the Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., as well as tributes from parents and friends.

NOW PREPARING FOR SESSION AT OTTAWA

STANDING OF PARTIES
Toronto, Nov. 11.—The Canadian Press from time to time has issued summaries of the standing of the parties resulting from the recent federal general election. All doubtful seats have now been removed into the various party columns and the list given below is complete except for the vacancy in Egypt, Quebec, owing to the death of the elected Liberal member, J. E. Maclellan.

In this summary the Canadian Press includes in the Liberal column J. E. A. Dubuc, the Independent Liberal elected in Chicoutimi, Quebec, over both the official Liberal candidate and the Conservative; and also includes St. Eustace, elected as an Independent Liberal in Prescott, Ontario, over the official Liberal and Conservative candidates. These candidates, although independent of party organization, ran and were elected as Liberals and therefore the Canadian Press feels they should not be placed in the Independent column alone. Of Mr. Bourassa, whose campaign in Quebec was as an Independent, pure and simple.

The question has been raised as to whether Mr. W. Jacobs was elected as a Liberal or as an official or Independent Liberal, but the Canadian Press has been informed by the Prime Minister's office that he was the official Liberal candidate.

RELEASE OF WONG

Mr. Craig asked the jury to consider the circumstances under which Wong had been released from captivity. He said those circumstances would have an important bearing on the case.

"He was taken away, as I will show, by police officers of Point Grey," said the prosecuting counsel, "and was driven to Marine Drive in Point Grey, and by a curious coincidence out there on Marine Drive a police officer of Point Grey arrived on the scene. Wasn't he released so the kidnappers should not be caught?"

WONG A WITNESS

Wong Foon Sing was the first witness. After he had been sworn, Sheriff Charles Macdonald, at the request of the judge, commanded a two-minute silence to commemorate the armistice anniversary.

Wong again narrated the story of his abduction on the night of March 29, his removal to the house on Twenty-Fifth Avenue and his incarceration there forty-one days. He explained he was willing to re-examine his captors, because they were always covered by disguises. No warrant had then been shown him for his arrest, he said.

WAS BLINDFOLDED

Telling of his release on May 1, he testified he had been blindfolded and taken from the house to an automobile. With a man on either side and another driving the car, they had traveled for an hour, he said, and he had heard a voice say, "Get in." Getting a pass to go to Canada. Later he had been taken from the automobile to some bushes by a man who remained with him while the car drove away and until a car arrived on the scene, he said. His escort had then left, said Wong, and was succeeded by a strange man who asked, "What for you stay here?" This man had showed a police badge, said witness, and inquired: "Do you work at the Hakkas?" After witness had replied in the affirmative, the man, he said, remarked: "Everyone in Chinatown is looking for you."

VERY FRIGHTENED

Cross-examined by Stuart Henderson, the witness said he had been too frightened to say anything in the automobile on the night of his release, because "they said they were going to kill me." This threat, he said, had been made in the voice of a stranger.

The witness identified Sergeant Percy Kirkham as the man who had asked: "What for you stay here?" "Did not he say: 'What is this for?' and take the bandage off your head?" asked Mr. Henderson.

"He said: 'What for you stay here?'" repeated the witness in a louder tone.

In response to a telephone message from the sub-station, Chief Murdoch, whom he identified, had come in an automobile and removed him to police headquarters, said witness.

ROBINSON TESTIFIED

Oscar B. V. Robinson next took the stand. Asked to tell about the kidnapping, he said he had met Mr. Stratton and David Patterson outside the Baker house.

"He wants to drag in everybody," said Mr. Craig when the judge inquired whether this evidence was relevant.

"Unless it is absolutely necessary, don't let the names of people who are not charged," ruled the judge.

WORD "MURDER" BARRED

The witness, continuing, testified he had gone to the scullery, "where the girl was kept."

"Don't say the word 'murder,'" interrupted the judge. "You know English?"

"Yes," "Take your time. Take your time," admonished the judge.

The witness identified a plan of Point Grey which showed a route to be followed by the automobile carrying Wong from the Baker house.

$300 A MONTH

On March 7, the witness testified, Commissioner McDonald, Chief Murdoch and Sergeant Kirkham had come to his office and discussed the advisability of trying to extract from the Chinaman certain information.

"They said they were taking it up with the police commission," said the witness, "and that if they were not successful, they would try to extract from the Chinaman certain information."

"They said they were taking it up with the police commission," said the witness, "and that if they were not successful, they would try to extract from the Chinaman certain information."

Subsequently Murdoch and McDonald had come to his office, said the witness, and he had told them he had rented a house where the Chinaman would be kept.

TWO REVOLVERS

Sergeant Kirkham, he testified, had brought him two revolvers, a pair of handcuffs and a map of Point Grey; and the police officer had pointed out the roads which the abductors' car should use to keep within the municipality. They had arranged a meeting place where Robinson could report verbally that the Chinaman was taken.

Extraordinary Sale of Coats and Dresses

Owing to Exceptionally Mild Weather During the Autumn and Early Winter, We Find Ourselves Greatly Overloaded With Coats and Dresses.

These Coats and Dresses were purchased to sell, and not to look at. And, as the weather has not been cold enough to create a demand for Winter clothes, the women of Victoria have naturally taken advantage of the situation. The Winter is not over, however, and there will be many days when a snug Coat will be a necessity, and the many social functions will demand a New Party Dress; a Smart Street Dress is always in order.

Prices Will Be Simply Slaughtered

For a few days only the prices on Coats and Dresses will be reduced without regard of original costs, and when you consider that we carry none but high grade garments, the price reductions will be more significant.

had telephoned Chief Murdoch and told him: "Everything is all right. I have the Chinaman."

TOLD OF VISITS
Robinson told of different visits made by the three accused men to the house where Wong was held in confinement.

"Did you have any conversation with any of the accused regarding the release of the Chinaman?" asked Mr. Craig.

"Yes, two weeks or ten days before his release," said the witness. "Was there a meeting at the house of H. P. McCraney about this time?"

"Yes," "Who were there?" "McCraney, Reeve, Paton, Chief Murdoch, McDonald and myself."

ADVISED HOLDING WONG
"Was there any discussion regarding Wong?" Robinson replied that he had advised holding the Chinaman for a longer time, and stated that an attempt was made to get M. B. Jackson on the long distance telephone.

When this failed it was decided to send McDonald to Victoria on the night boat to discuss with Mr. Jackson the advisability of releasing Wong.

The witness stated that he was not present when the release was made. He stated that the money he received for his work totalled about $1,100.

Under cross-examination Robinson told of being hired by the Point Grey police commission through Chief Murdoch, to perform the abduction.

WHY HE TURNED
As Robinson was leaving the box, Mr. Justice Morrison asked: "Robinson, why have you turned against the prisoners, because they did not fill a money agreement?"

"Yes, partly that and because they left me to sink or swim."

William Robinson, son of Oscar B. V. Robinson, told of the part he played in the kidnapping, the confinement of Wong Foon Sing and the release of the Chinaman. He stated that Chief Murdoch, McDonald and Kirkham were all present when the Chinaman was taken from the Point Grey house early on the morning of May 1.

Fewer Men do More Work, Labor Heads Discover

Washington, D.C., Nov. 11.—The doctrine of wages based on productivity will be much in the public eye when the impending general wage movement of the railway employees takes shape.

Less men do more work, will summarize the labor's case. And there are reams of figures to show it.

One can forecast the general nature of the companies' reply from Shanon Thompson's annual statistical study of the roads. In brief, the number of employees per 100 miles of line is about the same as in 1915. In the meantime mile tonnage has increased from 276 to 390 billion, because of the investment of billions of capital in better rolling stock, tracks, bridges and terminals. These billions will also cry for wages out of the railway jackpot.

Yet it is probable that these economies have helped stimulate the demand for a general wage advance. Although there have been piecemeal wage increases since the cuts of 1921 and 1922, and fewer men employed than in the flush days of 1920, the average compensation of rail employees has slumped steadily. If a strike at a time since the 1920s is the more men on the extra-board is the reason, probably. Here is the average yearly pay for all classes of employees: 1920, $1,816; 1921, $1,667; 1922, $1,656; 1923, $1,617; 1924, $1,612.

The number of employees decreased from an average of 2,972,921 in 1920 to 1,562,264 in 1924 for the roads represented in the Thompson compilation, while the number of hours worked for the two years was, respectively, 5,585,568,000 and 4,661,682,000.

Lee Lauck has prepared a comparison of American and foreign average rates of railroad pay for Trade Winds. It shows that the average American railroad's pay in 1923 was $1,617, while the average for the following countries was: Canada, $1,295; Great Britain, $1,258; France, $1,441; Germany, $1,243 marks (whatever they are worth at the present exchange rate or in home buying power); Japan, $1,121 (1921); India, $1,121; Italy, $1,456; Switzerland, $1,046; Netherlands, $1,236.

Australian railroad wages are about seventy-one per cent. of the American average. Fragmentary statistics of foreign railroads show there were vast increases in the number of men employed in some countries during and after the war, but in Germany, Italy, and elsewhere war babies have been lopped off the pay rolls. In other countries the number of employees did not carry much more during the war period than here.

The American railroad certainly gets better wages than any other; on the other hand, it is quite true that the American railroad worker on his kind of railroad is not expensive at the price when compared to the foreigner.

ANNUAL DANCE AT DUNCAN A SUCCESS

Four Hundred Merry-makers at Tennis Club Party

Special to The Times

Duncan, Nov. 11.—Nearly 400 people attended the Annual Dance, held on Thanksgiving Day by the Duncan Lawn Tennis Club. As usual, it proved an unqualified success. The energetic committees in charge are to be congratulated on the result of their hard work.

The Agricultural Hall looked its prettiest, decorated with gay colored flags around the walls, streamers of ivy, with many Chinese lanterns, and tinted paper shades on the lights. The stage was well done with small hemlock trees and poplar trees, with white decorations. The walls with ivy, ferns and poppies again, poppies of the lights and on the tables vases of bright autumn leaves and berries, with plates of bright red apples here and there. Hunt's orchestra of Victoria supplied excellent music, full of life and vim, and 2 a.m. came all too soon for the dancers.

Arrangements were made for the sale of work which is to be held November 12 in the picture house. As usual there will be a large number of attractions, with needlework, home cooking, and white elephant stalls for the adults, and a bean pie for the children. Tea will be served during the afternoon. In the evening the sale will be continued and a musical programme will be given.

Several other business matters were settled. The sum of $8 was voted towards the theological college fund. At the close of the meeting a dainty tea was served by Mrs. Maurice Halhed and Mrs. N. Lang.

The Armistice Day Memorial Service was held Sunday in the Church of St. Michael's and All Angels. The building was packed to capacity. The First Chemainus Girl Guides, Brownies, Scouts and Wolf Cubs attended with their guides. The flags of the companies were received by the rector, the Rev. B. E. Spurling, and placed in the chancel. Then the singing of the first verse of "O Canada" opened the service. Suitable portions of Scripture were read by the rector and hymns were sung, led by the choir of the two churches.

After the service in the church the congregation adjourned to the Memorial outside the church, while final prayers were said and the first verse of the National Anthem sung. MOSES CATSWORTH OUT TO SAVE TIME

Calendar Reform Would Mean Tremendous Saving, He Declares

Toronto, Nov. 11.—Moses R. Catsworth, F.R.S., F.R.A., F.C.A., director of the "International Fixed Calendar," and expert for the League of Nations, is in the city for the purpose of making a survey of the amount of money that would be released for business expansion by the use of four-week months. Similar surveys are arranged for four other cities—Vancouver, Winnipeg, Ottawa and Montreal. When he had collated all the information obtainable it will be forwarded to the League of Nations. By means of questionnaires distributed among prominent business men it is hoped to obtain the definitely calculable amount of money that could be freed for the purpose mentioned. It is calculated that ten per cent would be released from liquid assets by the adoption of thirteen months of four weeks each.

In his report to the League of Nations Committee Mr. Catsworth states: "By using thirteen months of twenty-eight days all monthly money values now circulating twelve times per year for labor, salaries, rents, pensions, etc., also for manufacturing, wholesale, retail, railway, shipping, etc., accounts would circulate thirteen times per year. Therefore for each $30 and $31 of liquid capital now circulating in that service monthly, only $28 would be required, as by circulating thirteen times it would do the service for which $30 and $31 are now (and would be thirty and thirty-one-day months) required. The estimate thus far made of the total money values which would be thereby released during the first three months in which twenty-eight-day months are used indicates that about $2,000,000,000 would be released for business expansion and improvements in Europe, and for nations combined about $5,000,000,000."

D. LAMB DISCUSSES MIGRATION AFFAIRS

Winnipeg, Nov. 11.—Commissioner David N. Lamb, director of the immigration department of the Salvation Army, in an interview here last night expressed regret over signs that many citizens of Canada were "becoming selfish and fearful that the arrival of immigrants will cause them to lose their jobs."

This "bug," as he termed it, was very prevalent in Australia, Commissioner Lamb stated, and he expressed himself as "grieved at its inception in Canada."

Commissioner Lamb said he "had been taken to book" by the Immigration Department of Canada because in a recent speech in Toronto he "playfully remarked that it is harder to get into the Dominion of Canada than into the Kingdom of Heaven."

"My answer," the commissioner said, is this: "Two British youths of sixteen whom I wished to bring into Canada last year were absolutely refused entrance because at the ages of eight and eleven, respectively, they had been convicted of theft. They had been admitted into Heaven. Since that time they have settled in Australia and are doing splendidly."

PRIVY COUNCIL GIVES ST. LAWRENCE RULING

London, Nov. 11.—The constitutional question involved in the appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council here in the consolidated case of Tetreault versus the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal and the Attorney-General of Quebec versus the Attorney-General of Canada, was decided yesterday in favor of the Province of Quebec.

The bed of the St. Lawrence River in the extended part of the harbor declared by Their Lordships to be Provincial property. The harbor commissioners have no right to erect works there, but in view of the undertaking of the Attorney-General of Quebec not to disturb the existing works no order is made by them affecting the present possession and use of the works of the harbor commissioners.

The appeal of Tetreault is allowed in regard to the right of access to the St. Lawrence River. He claimed he had lost his access to the river as a result of the erection of an embankment by the Montreal Harbor Commission and thereby suffered monetary loss.

GET DOWN TO BUSINESS

WHETHER THE SESSION OF THE

Legislature now under way be either short or of customary length, drab or exciting, is of no particular concern to the people of this Province as long as our lawmakers shall apply themselves to the dispatch of public business with the same care and consideration as they would devote to their own. As far as the session has gone there has been very little to mark any difference between this one and former ones. The members of the Opposition who have already contributed to the debate on the Address have run true to form. Very few constructive ideas have been propounded by them, excepting, perhaps, Mr. Hincliffe's proposal to alter the form of taking the absentee vote—a plan which might well be considered. Various accusations have been made. If any of these were serious, or even intended to be serious, there might be some justification for their consideration in detail. For the most part, however, their frivolous nature has been apparent.

Nobody expects the representatives of two political parties, one in office and the other wishing it were, to meet face to face once a year and dwell together in perfect harmony; the millennium is still far off. But the people are certainly looking for some practical attempt to deal with issues of very considerable importance to them. They are losing patience at the spectacle of such discussions as that which caused forty-eight full-grown men to speculate the other day as to whether a Cabinet Minister was present in a political committee room in Grand Forks while somebody was consuming a glass of some sort of liquid. The cost of government in British Columbia is high enough without killing time in this fashion.

ENEMIES NO LONGER

LONDON'S HISTORIC GUILDHALL HAS been the dumb witness of many memorable scenes; but it is safe to say that no post-war celebration has so far eclipsed in significance and hopefulness the gathering which concluded the Lord Mayor's Day ceremonial on Monday evening. There at the banquet table, in the presence of a brilliant company comprising representatives of international commerce and diplomacy, Great Britain's Foreign Secretary joined the German Ambassador in a draught from the massive loving cup which has long been part of Guildhall-banquet tradition. Thus did a staunch Briton and a proud Prussian bury the past and resolve anew.

"I have drunk from the loving cup with the German Ambassador," Mr. Austen Chamberlain said in his subsequent speech, and proceeded to declare that what "I have done to-night may our nations do to-morrow. We will work in the spirit of Locarno that world peace may be kept and civilization may recover from its wounds." But the British Foreign Secretary did not confine his hopes to the mutual agreements entered into voluntarily at the little Swiss village; his mental survey took in the Orient as well as the Occident and found expression in these sentiments: "The same spirit of mutual understanding and goodwill which prevailed among the powers at Locarno will, I hope, prevail among the powers represented at the conference with representatives of China regarding the Far East treaties. From that conference may spring a new fellowship between the East and the West—a new understanding in which the old enmities will be forgotten and old friendships will be remembered. I hope and believe that the conference in China may be the means of establishing peace in the East as firmly as I hope we are establishing it in the West."

The pleasing thing about the atmosphere which pervaded the banquet hall was the general determination to perpetuate the spirit of Locarno rather than to place an undue reliance on the letter of undertakings entered into. It is not to suggest that there might be a return to the scrap-of-paper mood; but it should be possible for humanity to expect more from nations of peacefully-ordered minds than from nations solely relying upon the effect of a deterrent in the shape of a signed-sealed-and-delivered agreement. Mr. Austen Chamberlain undoubtedly had this in mind when he said that "no statesman will dare to take the responsibility of dashing from our lips the cup of hope of Locarno." And his declaration that "it is the spirit of Locarno the world needs and cherishes" should put new faith and new determination into the hearts of men in every land.

AN AUSTRALIAN CAMPAIGN EXAMPLE

IT HAS REMAINED FOR THE AUSTRALIAN Labor Party to deal with tuberculosis as an election campaign topic. It is appealing for the vote of sufferers from this malady on the strength of its promise to "borrow" the celebrated Dr. Spaulding from the institute over which he presides in Geneva if such an arrangement could be made. Mr. Charlton and his Laborite followers would have to be elected, of course, to implement the promise; but in the not unlikely event of the electorate sustaining the Bruce-Page Administration the campaign material of its chief opposing party in this connection might well be translated into practical politics by the victors.

Whether anything comes of the Australian suggestion or not—the general public is apparently interested in the preservation of the human asset—the introduction of a subject of this kind on the hustings will spread out a more hopeful picture before sufferers from tuberculosis in the British Empire. Discussion of this or any other unspectacular malady seldom creates anything approaching general excitement. More unimportant things usually do that. At the same time, it would be much more in keeping with a proper interpretation of their public duty were at least some of our legislators to forego an hour or so of recreation and devote it to the business which the Australian Labor Party considers sufficiently important to include in its appeal for support at the polls. The absentee vote question, for instance, might make way for it some otherwise dull afternoon.

DISCOURTEOUS

DURING THE CONFERENCE YESTERDAY between members of the Government and business men of Victoria and Vancouver regarding succession duties the leader of the deputation called upon Mr. E. C. Warren, formerly of Florida, to give his views. The Premier brusquely said he had "no intention of hearing Mr. Warren."

In this incident the Premier's attitude was decidedly discourteous, and the delegation would have been justified in showing its resentment at the affront by terminating the conference at once. Mr. Warren came to Victoria with his family from Florida more than a year ago in response to advertisements sent out from this city setting forth its advantages as a place of residence. He made his home here, subsequently acquiring a large section of land at Sooke which he is developing. He recently purchased considerable city property, is a substantial taxpayer and therefore helps to maintain our Government. He is a valued member of the Chamber of Commerce and was invited to join the delegation because, as a former prominent resident of Florida, which bulks so largely in the controversy on succession duties, it was felt he would be able to give useful information. He did not seek a place on the delegation and probably if he had consulted his own convenience he would not have accompanied it.

It was Mr. Oliver's duty to hear any member of the delegation the leader of that body called upon for information. Having agreed to meet the delegates in the first place it was not for him to say who should or should not present the delegation's case. Besides, it was very desirable from his own standpoint to listen patiently to all such a delegation had to say, because in our judgment the average Government can learn at least as much from an average well-informed delegation as the delegation can learn from a Government.

THE BUBBLE PRICKED

WRITING IN AN AMERICAN JOURNAL recently, M. Vladimir Zenzinov, a Russian well qualified to paint a picture of conditions at present obtaining in his own country, indicates that if the land over which the Bolsheviks have sway for the time being is not already being reborn, it will eventually be completely reborn—as a great peasant democracy. In support of this view he points out that not so very long ago a well-to-do peasantry, to say nothing of the accumulation of capital in the villages, would have appeared as a deadly sin in the eyes of the Marxist leaders. Yet it is now a fact that the more prominent Bolsheviks openly agitate in favor of these things in the press and at every conference and congress. More than that, their appeals do not remain mere propaganda; they are actually being made the cornerstone of a practical peasant policy. Several months ago, in fact, the Soviet of People's Commissars decreed "provincial rules for the hire of auxiliary labor in agriculture."

These new rules obviously proscribe much that firmly held as law in the recent past. They sanction hired labor in peasant agriculture and, at that, they set no limitations to the number of persons hired. Therefore they not only permit, but they assist in the development of capitalist relations in rural economy. In this connection M. Zenzinov emphasizes the point that the employer of this hired labor—formerly called the "exploiter"—does not in any degree forfeit his franchise at the Soviet elections, whereas, according to the Bolshevik Constitution, only actual laboring people enjoyed such a franchise. Thus these changes show what a complete turn has been taken by the disciples of the Lenin-Trotsky faith. From tyrannical conditions which easily out-Cazared the old order the Bolsheviks now unanimously declare that they do not wish to aggravate the class struggle in the villages; which means that the former apostles of class hatred are now beginning to preach one of the common-places of classic political economy. It is, of course, the gradual and growing consciousness on the part of the peasant of his own decisive role in the country's destinies. As it advances it will become more difficult for the parlor Bolshevik in other lands to do his "business."

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

A MAKER OF GOOD BUTTER

From "The Toronto Globe"

It took only four months to make a prize-winning Canadian farm woman of Mrs. W. N. Smith, lately of England, now of British Columbia. With her husband and six children she arrived in Canada last May, and this Autumn she competed at the B.C. Fair, winning first prizes in butter, fancy butter and cream cheese, and second for clotted cream. Mrs. Smith made good butter and cheese on her husband's farm in England, and immediately they settled on their forty-acre farm at Port Langley she put her knowledge to practice. She first won the approval of her family of six, ranging in age from four to nineteen, then of visitors, and now of the judges at the Fall fair.

The Smiths came to Canada under the British Empire Settlement Scheme, and let us hope, are but one of many families who will move from the soil of the overcrowded Old Land to the rich lands and open spaces of the West. Mrs. Smith has shown the wisdom of such a move, and her example is stimulating.

ASK EXTENSION OF MUNICIPAL LICENSE POWER

Demand that all municipalities be given the same taxing licensing powers as those enjoyed by the City of Vancouver was made yesterday by the Municipal Committee of the Legislature to-day by a delegation from the Union of B.C. Municipalities. Additional revenue is the objective. Only small number of proposed amendments to the Municipal Act which were urged last year, but without obtaining action, were reviewed by the delegation and the committee. The union's whole petition for amendments will be presented to the committee on Tuesday next when the executive of the union will be in attendance.

U.S. IS URGED TO JOIN WORLD COURT

Would Aid Efforts For Peace, Says Charles E. Hughes

New York, Nov. 11.—The chief contribution of the United States to the peace of the world lies not in declarations calling for the outlawry of war, but in the support of the State of Peace. Charles E. Hughes, assisted at an Armistice Eve dinner in his honor here last night.

Responding to the tributes of Elinor Root, also a former Secretary of State, and Irving T. Bush, master, for his efforts "to promote world peace and international goodwill," Secretary Hughes declared that "our most important service will be found not so much in any specific act as in the spirit in which we conduct our foreign relations."

SPIRIT OF KINDLINESS

"If any nation on earth can conduct its foreign affairs in a spirit of kindness, of esteem, of regard for the feelings of others," he said, "it is the United States. Our greatest interest is international friendship."

"Urging adherence to the Permanent Court of International Justice, Mr. Hughes said:

"We now have an opportunity without sacrificing any national interest to support and buttress the new institution to maintain the supremacy of law among nations. I trust we shall not miss that opportunity by failing to support the Permanent Court of International Justice."

Tax Law Magnet Wins Northern Gold to Florida

Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Nov. 11.—Taxation was one of the early factors in starting the Florida movement. When the state adopted a constitutional amendment that a state inheritance or state income tax should not be collected, it was just as foolish as a fox. Such taxes had not been collected by the state, so it was not giving anything up, but to slip it into the treasury.

HOW LAW WORKED OUT

The inheritance tax prohibition appears to have made peculiar appeal to those of great substance whose wealth comes from industrial and commercial establishments, where the collection of a heavy death tax might mean disorganization of the plant. Nobody knows just how much wealth was attracted in this way, but its volume was undoubtedly tremendous.

"RETIRE" TO BECOME WEALTHY

Now here, they bought for a song, they are singing as they sell. Many a retired business man, who came down to give the government the tax collector, or to escape northern winters, has piled up more money in the last few years than he made during his working career. Other men are cashing their teeth over the escape of death-taxes. A few years ago it was announced that Wisconsin would challenge the right of Florida to attract millionaires to change their legal residence to Florida to escape inheritance taxes. Wisconsin will test the will of John I. Hensley, who is president of the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company. He died recently, leaving an estate placed between $30,000,000 and $50,000,000. A year or so ago he established his legal residence in Fort Pierce, Fla., and became inter-

Two-minute Armistice Day Silence Observed in Cities of Plains

Winnipeg, Nov. 11.—A silent tribute to the glorious dead was paid to-day by citizens of Western Canada. At bench or desk, in factory, office or shop, the men and women stood for two minutes in silence at 11 o'clock in honor of the Empire's heroes and the signing of the Armistice seven years ago to-day.

In Winnipeg a simple and solemn service was held at the Main Street Cenotaph, attended by "Garrison troops and members of war veterans' organizations, which was followed by the unveiling of a monument at Portage Avenue and Pine Street, in honor of three Victoria Cross heroes who formerly lived on Pine Street.

In the Western cities, villages and towns the citizens paid their silent tribute. In some towns monuments were unveiled, while in others citizens remembered those who had "passed on" by placing wreaths on the city or town cenotaph.

GOVERNMENT'S FIRM STAND HAS SETTLED INTERIOR DOUKHOBOR PROBLEM, NEW MEMBER ASSERTS

Opposition attacks on the Government's attitude towards interior Doukhobors were repulsed in convincing fashion yesterday in the Legislature by Dougald MacPherson, newly-elected member for Grand Forks-Greenwood, centre of the Doukhobor settlements. In a speech which showed that the new member has added a striking and forcible personality to British Columbia politics, Mr. MacPherson declared that the Government's firm stand in dealing with the Doukhobors at last had solved a problem which had baffled previous governments and culminated in open violation of British laws by the Russian colonists. The Opposition members who had assailed the Government's stand, he added, had provided him with some excellent campaign material should he ever be a candidate for office again.

Mr. MacPherson declared that the ousting of the Doukhobors from the province was getting sick of the wrangling and accusations which had been going on for some years in the House, of which he had just become a Member, and he urged his more experienced fellow-legislators to "cut out that nonsense and get down to business." "Had the Government not seen fit to go ahead and compel the Doukhobors to comply with our British laws I would not have been a Government candidate," he said, "and if they ever allow those old conditions to come back I shall not support this Government."

To the suggestion of H. D. Twigg that the time chosen for prosecuting the Doukhobors was unfortunate, Mr. MacPherson said:

"The time was the first that I ever had a chance to choose and I jumped at it. I have no apologies to make for that."

He added that although he had been the central figure in the "diabolical plot" against the Doukhobors described by Mr. Twigg, he was still a good friend of those people who came to him to settle their little troubles and not to the members for Victoria. He hoped to see the day when they would be good citizens of Victoria, and when it came there would be much credit due the Government.

"There must have been some merit in the Government's action or it would not have changed an adverse majority of 43 at the general election to a majority in my favor," he said.

LENIENT POLICY FAILURE

Mr. MacPherson reviewed the history of the Doukhobor question, pointing out that the Blakemore Commission, appointed by the McGowan government, had recommended a lenient policy which had been followed until recently, but with poor results. The Doukhobors had not hesitated to enter the courts and denounce the laws of this Province as man-made laws contrary to the laws of God, and to openly declare their intention of setting them at naught," he said.

"Such things make my British blood boil," the member declared. "Ordinary punishments had failed to suppress their activities in burning schools, he said. There was no secrecy about the Government's proposed plan of seizing the Doukhobors' goods and selling them in satisfaction of unpaid fines, but the Doukhobors had chosen to believe that the wages were theirs, such as they were, and had gone on from this and the preceding government.

FIGURES ARE SERIOUS

Evidence of the seriousness of the situation he showed by figures. In 1921 there were 414 enrolled pupils and an average daily attendance of 219, almost all boys. By 1924 there were no schools operating and the school building had been burned.

Six months had elapsed since the Government took its drastic action. To-day, he said, the Doukhobors had built six new schools and had others under construction. There were 300 Doukhobor children attending school, including a considerable number of girls for the first time. The community had also received a message from its new leader instructing them to observe the educational laws of British Columbia.

The Doukhobor was not a man of such good morals as he had been represented, he claimed, for he had not hesitated to imperil the lives of resident teachers in burning down schools at the dead of night.

He denied that the $5,000 grant to the irrigation district during the recent by-election had any political strings to it, and said that instead of a certain settler having been threatened with action to collect arrears of payment due the Government to force him to vote for the Liberal candidate, he had personally interceded to get this man more lenient treatment from the Land Settlement Board, although he never had had any intention of voting Liberal.

In concluding, Mr. MacPherson said he was opposed to such a large capital outlay as would be required to build the P.G.E. into the Peace River or into North Vancouver, but suggested that some cheaper means of transportation might be found as a substitute for the expense of completing the line between Quesnel and Prince George. He urged that the Government devote attention to bringing in new settlers, but urged that they be discouraged from going into remote districts where there are no conveniences.

He also urged reduced taxation, mentioning abolition of the personal property tax as a good beginning in this direction.

NEW WINTER

WORK BEING RUSHED NOW AT DUNWELL

Great Mineralized Area Disclosed as Vein is Traced Over Long Distance

Stewart, Nov. 11.—Good weather for the past month has greatly facilitated the reopening of Dunwell mine under the management of Matthew Little, M.E. The large amount of outside work necessary is being rushed with a crew of some twenty men. The power plant having been put in shape, the air has been turned on, making possible the commencement of underground work.

It is the reported intention of the management to continue No. 4 tunnel and at the same time put a raise through from No. 4 to No. 3 level, a distance on the dip of the vein of approximately 300 feet.

SPEEDS ORE HANDLING

While this is being done the air will be carried over the surface and into No. 3 for widening and extending the north drift to a main working level. By the extension of this north drift, which is already run on the vein for 500 feet, showing high-grade and good milling ore throughout, the remarkable showings on the Sunbeam claim can be opened at depth.

All ore developed on No. 3 level can be sent down the raise cut through No. 4 to the tram head at its portal. According to a survey just completed by Dalby B. Morrell, this is a distance of about 1,400 feet from the mill site selected on the road at the foot of the hill slightly north of Glacier Creek. This plan of operation not only enables the most practical handling of the large ore reserves in the old workings, but also provides for developing the Sunbeam veins.

PROSPECTING REWARDED

Surface work done during the past summer under the supervision of John Stewart on the Sunbeam claim, has resulted in opening up and tracing out what from surface indications promises to be one of the most intensely mineralized areas in the district. The first vein discovered on the Sunbeam appears to be the northern extension of the "Surprise" vein opened last year near the portal of No. 4. It strikes N. 5 deg. E. and dips about 50 degrees to the West.

To date it has been traced on the surface by open cutting, etc., for a distance of 300 feet, with a width of from four to twelve feet and values from $24 to over $200 in gold and silver.

Paralleling the Sunbeam 300 feet east, has been found the extension of the Dunwell vein. This also has been traced by open cuts and stripping for a distance of 700 feet, with a width of from 10 to 20 feet, and in places showing from four to six feet of solid ore, with average values around $20 in gold, silver and lead, and streaks of high-grade up to $450 per ton. Its strike and dip are similar to the Sunbeam.

BIG MINE IN MAKING

Four cross fissures have been located between these two veins by open cuts. The ore of these is of better shape than ever. A new 24-inch steel main from the penstock to the Pelton wheel has been installed and a number of improvements have been made to the flume, including a snowshed over the intake to prevent a recurrence of last winter's experience with freezing.

An important feature of the situation is that the southernmost ore exposures are roughly 1,000 feet north of the face of the north drift in No. 3 level of the old workings, and are the same in character, strike and dip. These ore bodies are of immense value in themselves, and add greatly to the possibilities of the property. Bidding fair to place Dunwell in a class with the big mines of its type.

PREPARING FOR WINTER

The compressor plant is being thoroughly overhauled and put in better shape than ever. A new 24-inch steel main from the penstock to the Pelton wheel has been installed and a number of improvements have been made to the flume, including a snowshed over the intake to prevent a recurrence of last winter's experience with freezing.

A diamond drilling contract has been let to Boyles Bros. in No. 4 tunnel that has for its object the further exploration of the original Dunwell ore bodies at depth.

Thanksgiving Service Is Held in Saloon

London, Nov. 11.—The custom of holding harvest thanksgiving services in public houses is growing in the Black Country. During the last few weeks several such services have been held in Dudley, Tipton, Willen-hall, and other townships in this area.

At one of these "tavern thanksgivings" the bar of the taproom was loaded, not with glasses, but with vegetables, fruit and flowers, which were contributed by habitues of the house, who are also allotment holders. Clusters of hops brought back from the south by Black Country hop-pickers added what was, perhaps, an appropriate touch. There were also loaves of bread baked in local ovens, and even garments knitted by local housewives.

This particular service was conducted by a local minister, who was accompanied by three or four members of his choir. The gifts were taken to the local hospital after the service.

NEW SCHOOL PLAN IN TERMINAL CITY

Board Approves Six-Three-Three-Year System; Further Information Desired

Vancouver, Nov. 11.—Vancouver school trustees have unanimously endorsed the proposal to inaugurate a system of six-three-three-year education. The decision was made at a meeting last evening.

Under the proposed system, the elementary school years would be reduced to six, while an intermediate high school course of three years would follow. From that the students would graduate to the senior high school.

While the endorsement of the proposal was given, the board will have further data supplied in the near future, and it will also be necessary to obtain the sanction of the Department of Education before the change can be made.

It is understood the department is favorable to the plan.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Rag Dolls

Copyright, 1925, McClure Newspaper Syndicate

(By Howard R. Garis)

Dancing up and down in front of Uncle Wiggily, the queer old-monkey gentleman, shaking a bag, girded out:

"I have them! I have them! I have them in the bag!"

"What have you there?" asked the rabbit uncle. "Is it any of the bad chaps—the Fox, the Wolf or the mewling Bob Cat with his silly little tail? Have you any of them in the bag?"

"Nonsense! Of course not," answered the monkey with a laugh. "The idea of carrying bad chaps around in a bag."

"Well, they would carry me around in a bag if they could," said Uncle Wiggily. "But, tell me—what have you there?"

"Rags!" answered the monkey gentleman.

"Rags?" questioned Uncle Wiggily. "Rags!" spoke the monkey gentleman again. And Mr. Longears was glad the copy cat wasn't there to repeat the word "rags."

"I have rags for dolls," went on the monkey.

"Rags for dolls?" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I didn't know dolls ever needed rags. I should think they wouldn't like rags at all!"

"You don't understand," kindly explained the monkey gentleman. "I mean I have, in my bag rags out of which dolls can be made. You have heard of rag dolls, haven't you?" "Surely I have," replied Uncle Wiggily. "I guess with my little rabbit girls, Jingle and Jangle, and Baby Bunny, to say nothing of Lulu and Alice—Wiggibobble, the ducks, I have heard enough talk about rag dolls."

"Well then," went on the monkey gentleman, "you know, without me telling you, that you can't make rag dolls without rags. Now I just met a rag man, going to the fair—no, that was the pie man, whom Simple Simon met. Anyhow I met a rag man and he gave me a bag of rags. I have them here. And, if you like, I will take them to your hollow-stump bungalow, and your little rabbit girls can make all the rag dolls they like from my rags."

"That is very kind of you," said Uncle Wiggily. "I ought really to go home and not look for any more adventures right away, for Nurse Jane will be wanting this loaf of bread." He took from under his paw a loaf of bread he had bought just before he was upset in the little cart with Scooter and Tooter. The loaf had been under the pile of leaves with the rabbit gentleman, when he had swam "them" away. "And this loaf is a trifle mused up," said the bunny.

"Never mind," suggested the monkey gentleman. "I'll put it in my bag with the dolls' rags, and after it has been shaken up a bit the loaf will look like new."

So the monkey slung his bag of rags and bread over his shoulder and he and Uncle Wiggily were soon at the hollow stump bungalow.

"Oh, is that a new Santa Claus?" asked Jingle, when she saw the monkey gentleman carrying the bag.

"No, he has rags for you and Jangle to make dolls with," answered Uncle Wiggily, and just then, out from behind a big rock jumped the Fox.

"Give me that bag to carry Uncle Wiggily away in!" barked the bad chap to the monkey. Rudely snatching the bag, the Fox turned it upside down to empty it. But, as he did so, from the bundle of rags that fell out, a small creature, like a little girl, with blue eyes, red cheeks and golden hair, started to walk toward the Fox.

"Oh, a rag doll has come to life!" howled the Fox. "A rag doll has come to life! She must be a fairy, and will change me into a clothes pin! I'd better run away!" and he did.

But Jingle, after one look at the small creature, cried:

"That's my Christmas doll that can walk and talk! I lost her a week ago and I've been looking for her ever since. Oh, my dear Mattie, where have you been?" cried the little rabbit girl.

"Never mind where I've been!" spoke the doll in a pleasant sort of voice. "But hide! Hide! all of you! Hide before it is too late! Hide! Hide!" The doll began to run and they all followed her, even Uncle Wiggily. And why they did this, and why the talking doll wanted them to hide, you shall hear about to-morrow night. And may I ask you kindly not to stand the goldfish on its head so all its money will spill into the water? May it?

POLERIC LEAVING EIGHT KNOTS UNDER OWN STEAM WITH SALVAGE CONVOY

Homebound Freighter Expected in Port Thursday; Salvage King Accompanies Listing Vessel Which Rode Out Heavy Gale When Grain Cargo Shifted; Master Understood to Have Temporarily Declined Tow.

Making eight knots an hour despite the list and bad weather the Andrew Weir steamer Poleric was reported sixty miles off Cape Flattery at 10 o'clock this morning.

The large freighter was at that hour proceeding under her own steam with the salvage vessel, Salvage King, conveying her. The Salvage King reached the Poleric late yesterday afternoon and though details here are meagre it is understood no attempt was made to put a line on board at that hour.

A brisk southerly breeze with a heavy sea was running at the time and continues to-day with a perceptible improvement in both weather and sea, as the gale that has been experienced in the last three days lessens in velocity.

At her present rate of progress the Poleric will make port by Thursday morning, two days ahead of expectations. She will berth at the Ritchie wharf.

It was reported that the Poleric was dispatched as a precautionary measure despite the master's message, and will accompany the vessel until she makes port, it is understood.

The difficulty of operating the vessel with a fifteen degree list, in heavy sea and the fact that the cargo had shifted, were the reasons for the first message asking for aid, it is stated here.

The position of the listing vessel is said to be much improved, and she is making good time towards port.

BRISK MOVEMENT IN B.C. APPLES

Cunard Manager in City For Next Few Days on Business Mission

Talks of World Cruises and Interests in Pacific Northwest

A brisk movement of B.C. apples to United Kingdom points this year is reported by C. A. Whitlock, provincial manager of the Cunard Steamship Company, Ltd., at Vancouver, who was in the city to-day on a brief business mission.

The apple movement has always been a feature of fall-shipping, states Mr. Whitlock, but this year the increased volume of business in making steady demands for cargo space.

On a recent tour of the Eastern and Southern States Mr. Whitlock heard mention of Victoria and Vancouver Island repeatedly from widely different sources and came in contact with many families who, he says, are planning to spend their vacation time in the Pacific Northwest next year.

Part of his mission in the city to-day was to look into connection with round the world cruises projected by the Cunard line in the new year. The Corinthia got away from San Francisco on September 27 on an extended cruise with world trip and will make a call at Australia points for the first time.

A weekly service from New York to Plymouth, Cherbourg and London in a cabin service to Channel ports is a new departure of the company, announced Mr. Whitlock. The Corinthia, Andania and one other vessel will supply this weekly service to meet the Christmas rush to Europe.

The Mauretania on February 16, 1926, will set out on a round the world cruise, touching at New York, Egypt and Mediterranean ports, while the California in January and February will run two thirty-day cruises to the islands of the Caribbean Sea.

The Franconia and the Lancia will take world cruises out of New York in January. Four vessels, the list of which includes the Corinthia, Andania, Sarnia, Transylvania, and Carinthia. The Lancania will take one trip to Norway, leaving New York in June.

Overland connections with the Cunard line were part of the mission which brings Mr. Whitlock to the city, where he will remain for the next three days.

Cowhatch Lake Direct Service. Take Canadian National Railways motor coach from Point Ellice depot, 9.00 a.m. daily, except Sunday.

Gas From Stomach Pressed On His Heart

What may seem to be serious trouble may often be only stomach gas, says Dr. J. E. Morris for a long time was bothered with indigestion and gas pressure on his chest, etc. (known as Adierika) helped him.

Many people keep the OUTSIDE body clean but let their INSIDE body get dirty. Don't waste time with pills or cathartics. This acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels, eliminates poisons, and removes old matter which you never thought was in your system, and which caused stomach troubles, sleeplessness, headache, etc.

Whenever you eat too much heavy food, let Adierika REMOVE the undigested surplus and leave you feeling fine. ONE spoonful relieves GAS and takes away that bloated feeling. Even if your bowels move every day, Adierika brings out much additional matter which might cause trouble. Don't waste time with pills or cathartics but let Adierika give your stomach and bowels GOOD relief.

What Doctors Say

Dr. G. Rogers reports Adierika is the best medicine he has used in 37 years.

Dr. W. H. Bernhart writes he could not get along in his practice without Adierika. Dr. J. E. Morris, a doctor for 50 years, says he knows no medicine better than Adierika.

Dr. L. Langdon prescribes Adierika regularly.

J. E. Puckett writes: "After using Adierika I feel better than for 25 years. AWFUL impurities were eliminated from my system."

Adierika is a big surprise to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines because of its REAL and quick action. Sold by leading druggists everywhere.

The Cherca, operated by the Navigazione Libera Triestina through the General Steamship Corporation in the Mediterranean-Pacific route, reached William Head yesterday inbound and proceeded to Vancouver via Seattle.

The Arso is slated for loading on the coast in January; the Tagliamento for February; the Carlsberg for March; and the motorship Pella for April. The Ma Fella was to have taken an earlier sailing but her construction has been delayed beyond expectations in time to conform to original plans.

The Italian service was originated in September when the Plave taking the first run to this coast from Mediterranean ports.

CHINA CALL FOR B.C. LUMBER

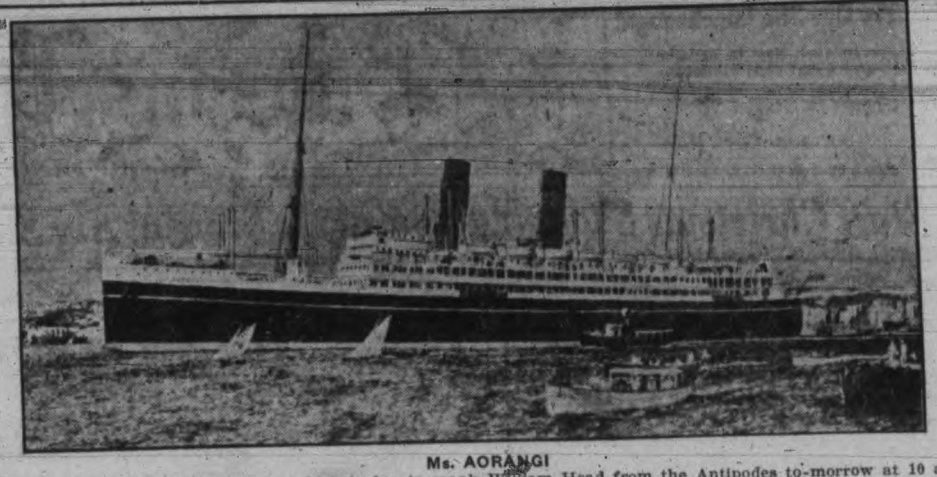

Building Programme Largest For Years, Says Trade Commissioner

Due chiefly to the heavy construction programme that is being undertaken in the main outposts of China, British Columbia should receive some large lumber orders in the next twelve months according to a report received by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce from Trade Commissioner L. M. Cosgrave. This year's building programme is likely to be the largest in many years, some of the large traders estimating the increased activity to be about 100 per cent. over 1924. Shanghai alone imported approximately 150,000,000 feet of Douglas fir in 1924 and stocks in the early spring held by importers and Chinese dealers averaged between 70,000,000 and 80,000,000 feet.

Shanghai as an import centre is attracting considerable attention from the exploiters of new timber resources. Russia has been making strenuous efforts to market lumber in China and the Chinese demand spruce and fir for the Shanghai market has assumed considerable proportions. Col. Cosgrave expresses the opinion that British Columbia spruce would find a good market in China.

EMPLOYEES AIDED TO COLLEGE COURSE

Canadian Pacific Railway Announces Three Scholarships For 1926

Montreal, Nov. 11.—Announcement is made from the office of the vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway here to-day that three scholarships covering four years tuition in architecture, chemical, civil, mechanical or electrical engineering at McGill University are offered subject to competitive examination to apprentices and other employees enrolled on the permanent staff of the company and under twenty-one years of age, and the minor sons of employees.

The competitive examination is the same as the regular entrance matriculation examination for McGill University, held there and at other centers throughout Canada in June of each year. The candidates making the highest average and coming within the requirements of admission will be awarded the scholarships, and have the option of taking any of the above courses.

The scholarships will be renewed from year to year to cover a period not exceeding four years, if at the close of each session the holder is entitled under the rules to full standing in the next higher year.

B.C. BECOMING WINTER RESORT

C. E. McPherson of C.P.R. Pleased With Tourist Coast Prospects

Vancouver, B.C., Nov. 11.—That the British Columbia coast is fast rivaling California and Florida as a winter resort for Eastern Canadian tourists is a fact attested by C. E. McPherson, assistant passenger traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who with another general official H. F. Mathews, Winnipeg superintendent of sleeping and dining car service for western lines, is spending several days in Vancouver.

Mr. McPherson is in the course of a periodical inspection trip. "We are expecting an exceptionally heavy movement of tourist traffic to the coast from the prairies this winter," Mr. McPherson said this morning, in spite of recent snow falls and the resultant delay in threatening operations in many quarters. "The Western farmers are going to have money to spend this winter, and will no doubt visit the coast in large numbers, particularly after the New Year. I have visited all the main cities and towns on the prairies en route here, and a very decided improvement in business and a feeling of optimism were evident all along the line."

Mr. McPherson will leave for Victoria on Thursday.

Maquinna Is Delayed

Delayed by heavy loadings the steamer Princess Maquinna will get away from Victoria at noon Thursday, instead of 11 o'clock this morning. The B.C. Coast Service vessel has loaded a record cargo of general freights for West Coast points.

OWNERS CONSIDER SEIZURE IS VOID

Further Litigation at Southern Port Over Seized Quadra

San Francisco, Nov. 11.—Another step in the legal battle of the Canadian-Highlander-Shipping Company Limited, to prevent forfeiture the suspected rum-runner Quadra and her cargo of some 12,000 cases of Canadian liquor was taken to-day when the shipping company, owners of the Quadra filed in United States district court an answer to the Government's cross bill, filed last February. The Quadra was seized on October 12, 1924, by the coastguard cutter Shawanash off the Barrataro Island. Her captain and several others are under conviction, and sentence on liquor charges.

DOLLAR LINE OFFER PROPOSED CHARTER OF PRESIDENT CRAFT

Five 535 Type Liners Plying Through Victoria Subject of Negotiations

Dollar Bid Was For Use of Ships With Option to Purchase

Explaining the Dollar proposals in regard to the five United States Shipping Board vessels of the 535 type plying out of Seattle via Victoria to the Orient, R. Stanley Dollar, vice-president of the Dollar Line, told inquirers recently that the offer made was for the charter of the five vessels with an option to purchase later.

At present it would not pay the Dollar Line to assume the capital ownership of the liners, it is stated, while the Shipping Board has power to arrange a charter as the next best course. The Dollar offer is to charter the passenger liners for a term of years with a clause in the agreement which would permit of purchase at a later date.

R. Stanley Dollar was in Seattle a few days ago interviewing connections of the line there with a view to developing plans under which the formal offer would be made to the Shipping Board. Some time ago the Dollar Line purchased five vessels of the same type plying out of Seattle to the Orient service. One has since been diverted to round-the-world cruises, the others remaining on the Orient run.

The Seattle-Yokohama service affected by the Dollar bid includes the President Jackson, President Madison, President McKinley, President Grant and President Jefferson, at present operated by the Admiral-Orion Line for the U.S. Shipping Board. All five carriers touch at Victoria inbound and outbound on their scheduled Orient sailings.

The Yakutat sailings are: Montrose—Dec. 5, to Liverpool. Melita—Dec. 10, to Southampton. Metagana—Dec. 11, to Liverpool. Montclair—Dec. 16, to Liverpool. Montclair—Dec. 23, to Liverpool.

COWPER JURY WAS SCORED BY JUDGE

Oaths Disregarded at Wong Hearing, Said Mr. Justice McDonald

Vancouver, Nov. 11.—When the jury at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon returned to the assize court room here and informed Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald it had found J. S. Cowper, editor of the Vancouver Weekly Tribune, not guilty of sharing in assaulting and illegally confining Wong Foon Sing, C. W. Craig, K.C., prosecutor, said:

"I ask your lordship to refuse to accept this verdict and I ask you to direct the jury to bring in a verdict of guilty. They have chosen to disregard their oaths. I have nothing to say."

The jury was discharged at once and court adjourned.

At the entrance of Cowper's defence the first count on the indictment, that of abduction, was stricken out. Cowper, who defended himself, charged that there had been no evidence to that effect and the court agreed. Defendant asked for dismissal of the other counts as he had not been identified but Mr. Justice McDonald reminded him he had assaulted the Chinese by removing part of his clothing, and admitted holding Wong's pulse. Wong had testified it was the same man who had done both.

The court instructed the jurors to confine themselves to the three counts dealing with the alleged confinement and illegal imprisonment. Cowper's admitted action in contributing money, secured through his paper by means of the Wong Foon Sing sustenance fund, "was to facilitate the incarceration of the Chinese by paying for his food, the judge had stated."

Cowper also told the court he had opened the clothes of Wong to give him a physical examination. That act constituted the assault charged in the indictment, the bench had instructed. It was further pointed out to the jury that the motive was to results were reported from the collecting ladies in Spencer's Limited store. Assistance in tagging was voted to the Victoria Women's Institute on November 28 for the proposed salarum.

Donations were gratefully received from Mesdames Marvin, Willing, Miss Pringle, Mrs. Ashworth, Miss Willing.

To Hold Benefit Tea—Princess Patricia Lodge will hold a benefit tea at the home of Sister Restell, Yates Street, on Thursday, November 12, from 2.30 till 10 o'clock.

HAD RHEUMATISM AND BILIOUS SPELLS

Mrs. Flora Prescott, North Hatley, Que., writes:—

"I was troubled with rheumatism, bilious attacks and headaches for over five years, and when in bed could not raise up without help. I tried almost every medicine I could think of, but did not get much relief until finally I decided to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, through a friend's advice. They completely restored me, and the old symptoms from which I had suffered so long entirely disappeared."

COAL TRIMMER BURIED ALIVE

Falling Pile in Bunkers Hid Norwegian From Mates

Montreal, Nov. 11.—When the steamer Tyrifjord, of the Norwegian American Line, arrived in port recently from New York and anchored in the stream, it was seen that her flag was flying at half mast.

Captain Vestor, who is in command of the ship, reported that one of the Norwegian coal trimmers named Evald was the bank of coal covered about 6.30 o'clock the morning before docking. About an hour later when the man did not put in an appearance some of the crew went to search and being unable to find him about the deck or in the firemen's quarters the searchers entered one of the coal bunkers and after shoveling a quantity of coal found the man buried there. He was dead from suffocation.

As the coal is being used in the fire room it leaves a slanting pile on the side of the bunker. It is believed that Evald had fallen into the bunker and the bank of coal covered him up. The man was single and his home was in Norway.

REALTORS AGAIN TO SEEK BETTERMENT OF CIVIC MANAGEMENT

Small Committee Seek to Lighten Aldermanic Burden

A deputation of the Real Estate Board of Victoria will meet the City Police Commission and explain the need for additional protection sought for vacant property.

To-day's luncheon of the board at the Chamber of Commerce discussed the need for betterment in civic government methods. F. Landsberg sought appointment of a special committee to interview the legislature and seek action permitting adoption of the city manager plan of civic administration.

J. H. Gillespie favored action in view of the difficulty in getting the police to serve as aldermen. He regretted that experience over a term of years should show such a large percentage of aldermen must be classified as either politicians or retired.

Mr. Landsberg urged changes relieving aldermen of a mass of committee and practical administrative work, whereby businessmen of the higher type will be able to serve on a council confined to legislative duties.

Finally a committee composed of Ered Landsberg and D. Leeming, with power to add to their number, was instructed to study civic affairs and bring in a report of betterments.

Gets Hard Labor For Six Months

Charged with supplying liquor to Indians, Charles Benson was found guilty and sentenced to six months' imprisonment, with hard labor by Magistrate George Jay in the City Police Court this morning. Benson faced a heavy wall of evidence, supplied at the instigation of Thomas O'Connell, Indian agent, who laid the information, by Indian witnesses.

The Indians who gave evidence to-day will themselves be prosecuted for being drunk, and appear Friday before a court at Duncan. They are in the custody of Thomas O'Connell.

SEEK AMICABLE SETTLEMENT OF WATER PROBLEM

Legislature Hopes for Friendly Agreement Between City and Adjoining Municipalities

Probability of Greater Victoria's water distribution problems being settled amicably before the end of the present session of the Legislature has emerged in the last twenty-four hours as a result of informal discussion of these questions by municipal leaders and members of the House.

Under present plans, made known at the Parliament Buildings to-day, the city's waterworks expropriation legislation would be passed by the House with the addition of certain clauses designed to protect the rights of adjoining municipalities. These clauses would contain a provision that disputes between the city and adjoining municipalities over water rates would be referred to an independent tribunal consisting of the Provincial Government's water-officials, who have settled thousands of similar disputes in recent years.

The Victoria City Council, members of the Legislature understand, will raise no objection to this proposal which is expected to satisfy the adjoining municipalities. Efforts to effect this friendly settlement will be made when the city's expropriation legislation comes before the Private Bills Committee of the House shortly.

Meanwhile petitions protesting against the expropriation of the Esquimalt Waterworks by the city were laid before the Legislature. R. H. Pooley, representative of Esquimalt in the House, will table the Esquimalt Council's petition against the expropriation to-day. Esquimalt asks the Legislature to safeguard its rights in connection with water rates. The Esquimalt Council's petition, which was laid before the Private Bills Committee of the House shortly.

A petition protesting against the principle of the expropriation was filed yesterday by Joshua Hinchliffe on behalf of a group of Victoria ratepayers headed by J. A. Shanks, J. P. Victoria, and found that prospects in that direction most promising.

Those who assisted in the fighting of the fire which completely demolished the Thuburn Garage, Esquimalt, recently, will be paid according to their labors, and special recognition will be advanced by councillors that the services of Arthur Young be particularly recognized.

RAYMOND GIVES ISLAND NEW LOW RATE ON ALL LUMBER MOVING TO EAST

Big markets are opened in the following states of the Union to Vancouver Island-lumber mills. Arkansas, Illinois, New York, New Jersey, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Tennessee, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, and West Virginia.

SEVERE HANDICAP The arbitrary rate on Vancouver Island lumber, bound for the East, varies from 14c to 25c per 100 lbs., which formed a severe handicap on the mills of this island in competition with the mills on the mainland. For fifteen or twenty years lumber interests, boards of trade of Vancouver Island have sought to have this handicap removed. The matter was taken up with railroad companies time and again without success, finally coming before the railroad commission, which rejected the application.

President Falconer Issues Re-buke to Students' Council

Toronto, Nov. 11.—In a letter from President Falconer, having reference to recent University initiatives, and addressed to the Students' Administrative Council, there is a hint that action may be taken by the caput of the University, to punish those who offend against university decorum.

Following a request from President Falconer, the Students' Council investigated initiatives held this year at University College and in the Medical Schools, and has sent to the caput an explanation and apology, so that it may be that the matter will be allowed to drop. President Falconer's letter is as follows:

OBJECTABLE FEATURES

"Of recent years there has been such a steady improvement in the conduct of the students and so few disorderly outbreaks have occurred, that it is a cause of deep regret and concern to the caput and to all who cherish the good name of the University, that this year at the initiatives of the freshmen of the Faculty of Medicine and of University College, some very objectionable features have appeared. While no physical injury resulted and nothing took place which was morally indecent, the proceedings to which the freshmen were subjected were such as this University cannot allow to continue.

CONSIDERING ACTION

"This caput requests the Students' Administrative Council to express to those who were responsible for what was done their strong displeasure and disappointment. It is at present considering, and will shortly announce, what action will be taken, with the co-operation. It is believed, of the Students' Administrative Council, to prevent a recurrence of proceedings such as give offence to the great majority of the students and injure the reputation of their Alma Mater."

SOAP BUBBLE WALLS THIN

According to the measurements of a German scientist, a soap bubble is only 1-150,000,000 of an inch thick in spots, while thin gold foil is about 1-250,000 of an inch.

battalions from the 33rd Infantry at Fort Clayton, Canal Zone, were called in to protect Panama City from rioters. The capital city of Panama was menaced by disorders of the workmen led on by radicals who threatened to destroy the city unless rent was reduced. The troops were sent in to protect property and maintain order.

DIVISION IN BOSTON ON ARMISTICE DAY

Pacifists and Radicals in Parade; Number of Others Withdraw

Procession Was Sponsored by Federation of Greater Boston Churches

Boston, Nov. 11.—Rather than fraternize with pacifist and radical organizations, the American Legion and many civic associations declined invitations to participate in today's Armistice Day parade in Boston.

The Kiwanis and Rotary clubs were among the organizations which refused to parade.

There were particular objections to the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, the Fellowship of Reconciliation, the Fellowship of Youth for Peace, and the League for Democratic Control.

These organizations had been retained, in spite of protests, because the Rev. George Lyman Faine, chairman of the Armistice Day committee, believed they were committed to world peace in principle.

The parade was sponsored by the Federation of Greater Boston Churches.

GOVERNOR'S ATTITUDE

Governor Fuller refused to designate a military man as chief marshal. Members of the First Army Corps were instructed not to parade in uniform and the Greater Boston Council of Boy Scouts withheld permission for members to march.

In commenting on the peace parade, United States Senator Butler said organizations had taken advantage of Armistice Day, which belonged to the veterans alone, to express views not in accord with the meaning of the day.

QUICKER IMPOUNDING OF ANIMALS PLANNED

Amendments to the Pound Act, introduced in the Legislature yesterday by the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, provide for a more speedy disposal of impounding animals in unorganized districts where the owners fail to release them by payment of pound fees.

A number of instances have recently arisen where worthless animals have been kept for the period of time required under the Act and have not brought at auction enough to pay pound fees or have not been purchased at all. In such cases the expense of impounding have been paid from public funds. The projected legislation is intended to reduce the period of advertising after impounding to not more than ten days, as compared with the former term, varying from twenty-six days to one month.

Where no bids are called at auction the pound-keeper is authorized, under the proposed amendments, to sell the impounded animals at private sale. Under previous enactments the animals had to be destroyed after an unsuccessful auction.

Doctors Baffled By Skeleton Girl

London, Nov. 11.—At an inquest on Florence Watson, it was stated that soon after her sixteenth birthday, she started to waste away until when nine years of age she weighed only 25 lb. The cause of her decline being unknown.

The girl's mother gave evidence that after she had started wasting, she was detained in several hospitals. Specialists were puzzled at her complaint. It was only with difficulty that she could be induced to take food and she never wanted to go to sleep. An X-ray examination failed to show any signs of organic disease. She collapsed on Friday night, and died without recovering consciousness the next morning.

Dr. Bronte, pathologist, said that the girl's body was extremely wasted, weighing only 25 lb. She was, in fact, almost a skeleton. His post-mortem examination showed that death was due to atrophy from inanition consequent on starvation through inability to assimilate food.

Dr. Bronte added that he had only heard of one similar case, and a most exhaustive microscopic examination failed to throw any light on the matter.

A verdict of death from natural causes was recorded.

NO ADVERTISING BY RADIO

Washington, Nov. 11.—The National Radio Conference yesterday went on record as opposed to the sending of direct advertising matter over the radio. A resolution adopted in general sessions said the goodwill of the radio audience was obtained and kept only through the broadcasting of entertaining programmes of a high order.

British-Mexican Dinner in London

London, Nov. 11.—Viscount Cowdray gave a dinner last night in honor of Esmond Ovey, on his appointment as Minister Plenipotentiary to Mexico and to celebrate the resumption of diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Mexico.

Many of those who attended the dinner are closely identified with Mexican affairs.

Lord Cowdray, in toasting the new minister, characterized Mexico as the "El Dorado of the future, whose wealth has not yet been touched."

Wallaceburg Finds Relics of Early Days

Wallaceburg, Ont., Nov. 11.—Treasures recovered from cornerstones of old Town Hall show that the building cost $4,000 in 1876. News says "This sum would not go far in the erection of such a huge structure today." Among the contents of the tin box was the following message from the past:

"After a great deal of unfortunate litigation the corner stone has been laid where it now is.—Post Master, D. B. McDonald."

Cougars To Leave Peg To-morrow On Exhibition Jaunt

Lester Patrick and His Champions Will Open in Montreal on Monday Night

Team in Fair Shape After Week's Training; Frederickson is Heavier

Special to The Times
Winnipeg, Nov. 11.—After one week's practice the Victoria Cougars, world's hockey champions, are fast rounding into shape and look almost good enough to go a full game now. They are working out to-day and will have another turn to-morrow, after which they will leave for Montreal, where they will meet the Montreal Maroons on Monday night in the first game of the season.

Frank Frederickson, the last Cougar to sign, is not in quite as good condition as his teammates. He, however, is usually a slow starter. He has several pounds of extra weight to work off. He should be in pretty fair shape to show his ability to the fans of the East. Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto are anxious to see the Cougars, which will be in action, and Freddie will be given them a good eye-ful as he has a big reputation to live up to.

DEFENCE LOOKS GOOD.
Lester Patrick, manager of the Cougars, is quite satisfied with his team. He is coming along. His three best defence men, "Slim" Halderson, Clem Loughlin and Gordon Fraser, have been in action, as well as their hard-checking, as well as to injure the light forwards. As a result the forwards are getting in on the goal a great deal more. The defence men are getting used to the Cougars' style of play. The Cougars are going with a four-man defence. Loughlin and Fraser are going with great speed on their attacks. Loughlin and Fraser are driving with great speed on their attacks. Loughlin and Fraser are driving with great speed on their attacks.

LET'S HOPE SO.
The club certainly looks good. The signs all point to our repeating in the Western League this year, and we'll probably have to make another journey in the Spruce to defend our honors against the winners of the National League.

After playing their six exhibition games in the East, the Cougars will proceed to Vancouver, where they will play their opening game in the Western League on December 5. The Cougars will not be pressed for time on the home days to make the jaunt. After the Vancouver game the club will proceed to Victoria to meet Saskatoon in a match there on Saturday, December 6.

Cowichan Golfers Win Over Nanaimo; Captain's Team Wins

Special to The Times
Duncan, B.C., Nov. 11.—The Cowichan Golf team returned from Nanaimo on Sunday with a victory over the Nanaimo Club by one point on the day's play. Jupiter Pluvius was very much in evidence in the morning and only nine holes were played in singles. In the afternoon two foursomes were played and the weather cleared somewhat.

On Thanksgiving Day on the Cowichan Golf course teams from the A and B Divisions met. The captain's team, K. F. Duncan, swamped the secretary's team, E. W. Carr-Hilton, by 26½ points to 4½. Grive, Stegney and Hilton were the only ones on the secretary's team to gain any points. The full scores follow:
Captain's team—Duncan 3, Peterson 6, Prevost 3, Robinson 1, Fox 1½, Shaw 1, H. W. McKie 3, Ben Heler 3, Dr. Adams 3, Dr. Kerr 3, Archdeacon Collision 3; total 26½.
Secretary's team—Jaynes 4, Grive 2, Reid 2, Stegney 2, Hilton 1½, Hope 2, Harper 2, H. L. Helen 2, Dr. Watson 2, O'Neill 2, Crane 2; total 4½.

QUEEN'S SCORING A TRY AGAINST VARSITY

The first touchdown in the Queen's-Varsity game of Saturday, won by the former 17-0. Just a moment before the half-time signal, Snyder bobbed on a bounding punt right on Varsity's goal line, and "Bud" Thomas, Queen's sensational outside wing, recovered it for a Queen's try by a long, diving tackle. Thomas is the player on the ground wearing the nose-guard. No. 25 is "Bub" Britton, No. 9 is Baldwin, the quarter-back. The player leaning over Thomas is "Liz" Walker, the other outside wing, while the player leaping into the air is Multhead. The official shown on the left is Referee "Bob" Ishler, of Hamilton.

Montreal Working Out To Be Ready For the Cougars

Two Practices a Day Being Held by Eddie Gerard; Likely Looking Players

Twelve Players Now in Harness and Rare Battle is on For Regular Berths

Montreal, Nov. 11.—Two-a-day is the rule in the Montreal pro hockey camp at the Forum as the team prepares for its opening tilt of the season, an exhibition game against the Victoria Cougars here Monday night. The sessions yesterday were lively and if they are to be taken as an example of what may be expected in the next few days there is going to be a rare old battle for the six regular positions.

Montreal has twelve players signed and in harness. Benedict is certain in goal, though Fred Fowkes, a Sudbury product, is trying out at the opposite end and shows fair form. On the defence Dutch Cain, Reg Noble, Dunc Munro and Hoby Kit, are battling for positions. At centre Nelson Stewart, former Cleveland amateur and Frank Lowrey, last year a substitute with the Maroons, are opposite one another. Broadbent, Rothchild, Denmore and Babe Selbert are the candidates for wing positions.

If Selbert and Kitchen, the two amateurs with Montreal Falls last season, and Nelson Stewart, the star centre from the United States amateur ranks, live up to the showing they are making in the workout, Montreal's squad that which wore the Maroon last season.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—Ottawa Senators, the Capital's entry in the National Hockey League, took the ice for their initial workout of the season last night at the Auditorium and two full teams lined up for the opening contest. The men cut loose without urging and at times were traveling fast. Every member of last year's team was on hand.

Practices will be held in preparation for the pre-season series with Victoria Cougars, champions of the world, on November 19 and 21.

English Auto Driver Shatters Old Record For 50 Kilometres

Paris, Nov. 11.—On the Montlhéry Speedway yesterday Captain Eldridge, Englishman, driving an automobile of one-half litre engine capacity, broke the world's fifty kilometre (31.07 miles) record by covering the distance in sixteen minutes and ninety-five hundredths of a second. His average speed was more than 116 miles an hour.

BATTLED TO A DRAW

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 11.—Jackie Gordon, New York bantamweight, and Stewart McLean, Oakland, fought a six-round draw at the Auditorium here last night.

Cliff Ramble, San Jose, took a four-rounder from Jimmy Darcy, Portland heavyweight.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

"Now I suppose," remarked Mrs. Snagers, "the surgeon of the Army are attached to the Medical Corps."
"Your supposition does you great credit," replied Mr. Snagers, sarcastically. "It's a wonder you didn't imagine that the doctors joined the Army for the purpose of building bridges or going up in a balloon. Where should Army surgeons be except in the Medical Corps?"
"Well, I thought that they might possibly belong to the fencers."

CONACHER SAYS HE HAD $10,000 OFFER BY NEW YORK CLUB

Pittsburg, Nov. 11.—Lionel P. Conacher, Toronto, known as one of the greatest all-round athletes in Canada, has turned professional and signed a contract with the Pittsburg professional hockey team.

Conacher gained his reputation by being a member of championship organizations in hockey and rugby and holds several track records. He also was a lacrosse player and wrestler of note.

Conacher is the sixth member to turn pro since the close of last season. He states he refused an offer in excess of $10,000 a year from the New York pro sextette.

Vic Foley Awarded Decision After Ten Rounds With Hellman
Vancouver, B.C., Nov. 11.—Vic Foley, bantamweight champion of Canada, was given the unanimous judges' decision here last night over "Chuck" Hellman of Portland at the end of a ten-round bout. Foley had the better of the bout in practically every round. In the third round he opened up a bad cut on Hellman's left eye which bothered the Portland boxer considerably. There were no knock-downs. Foley forced the knock-downs of the bout. Hellman improved as the bout progressed, and was getting better toward the end.

Bud Davies of Vancouver was given the decision at the end of four rounds over Art Humphries of Everett. They are bantams. It was the best bout on the night's card.

Winnipeg, Nov. 11.—N. Norman Bousie, prominent officer of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrew's, Scotland, and J. Kenneth Greenhill, of the honorable company of Edinburgh golfers, played at the Jasper golf course on Sunday in company with Stanley Thompson. They played the first nine and inspected the course. The visitors have immense admiration for the course, and are of the opinion that the setting is the finest of any course in the world.

DR. BILL CARSON

Picking Rep Team Likely To Present Some Difficulties

Selection Committee Will Have to Find New Full-back; Youngsters Available

Squad to be Picked Next Week For Training Session; One Senior Game Saturday

Picking a representative rugby team to play for the McKeech Cup is going to present some troubles for the selection committee. Lack of training, retirement of one or two main cogs of the machine and a wealth of young players who are on a par, will make the selectors do a lot of tall thinking.

At a meeting of the Victoria Rugby Union held yesterday a committee consisting of President, George Jay, Ernest Butterworth and H. J. Gillespie was appointed to act with a representative from the three senior clubs to pick the all-Victoria fifteen.

The selection committee will have as its first problem the picking of a full-back. Boss Johnson, who has filled that position so effectively for the past fifteen years, has decided to forsake the strenuous pastime and look on from the sidelines. Boss will be greatly missed. There is some talk of Walter Brynolfsson taking his place. While "Waltie" is a very reliable man with a good kick there is a feeling that he is more valuable at centre-three-quarter.

Dunc McLennan, also of Oak Bay, is another candidate for the position.

TEAM WILL BE STRONG.
It is expected that Victoria will have just as smart a back division this year as ever and high hopes are held out for a strong, powerful scrum.

Only one senior game has been played so far, the Oak Bays defeating the J.B.A.A. by a comfortable margin. On Saturday of this week the Oaks will take on the United Services and this will enable the selection committee to complete its task of looking over all the material in the league.

Twenty players are to be picked next week to form the rep squad. They will workout regularly and from this number the team to oppose Varsity at Vancouver on December 5 will be picked.

Saturday's match will reveal just what McKeech Cup timber the United Services has. The Oaks are expected to be strongly represented this year. In the past the J.B.A.A. champions for six years, have held the majority of the places but this time they will find strong opposition from the younger club.

LOSE LIEUT. DONALD.
One rep forward has been lost to Victoria. Lieut. Donald, one of the smartest young men who has played Varsity, has been transferred to Halifax and will not be available this year. He played a great game in the rep series last season.

In addition to Saturday's senior games there will be three intermediate fixtures. This will provide a fine card.

The rain of the past few days has served to good purpose for the rugger. The ground is now in the sun-baked turf. The Willows Oval is in fair shape and will be used for the senior game on Saturday.

NEVER IN DANGER.
In the seniors' game the First Presbyterians were never in danger. They established a comfortable lead and breezed along under wraps. Ten points were scored by the First Presbyterians and the game was over.

In the second half each side doubled its score. The Onwegoes had a number of shots, but they were wide of the mark most of the time.

The teams were:
First Presbyterian—Foubister, Turpel, Skillings, Forbes, Streeter, Hudson, Nachtrieb and Whyte.

CHRIST CHURCH WIN.
In the intermediate girls' game Christ Church scored a narrow victory over the Cougars, by 8-7. The game was close all the way. In the first half the Cougars gained a two-point lead, and just a few minutes before the final whistle were out in front by one point. Just when they were ready to count on victory Alice Code dropped the ball through the hoop for two points and converted defeat into a win for the Christ Church girls. The girls checked hard all the way, but there was considerable open play.

The teams and individual scores were as follows:
Cougars—J. Smith 1, J. Milliken 2, Foubister 4, G. Sayer and V. Foubister.
Christ Church—A. Code 4, K. Wootton 4, D. Clayton, K. Atherton, M. Mitchell and B. McMillan.
Referee, T. Forbes.

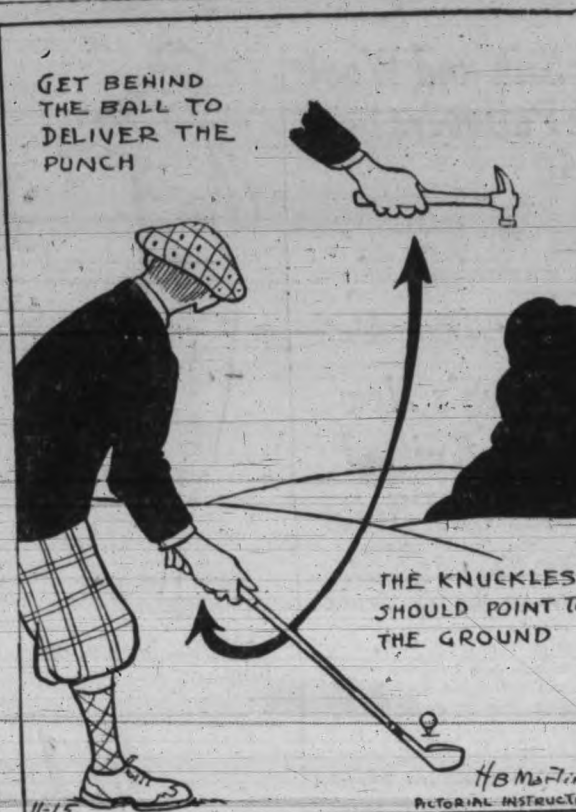

HUSTLERS DEFAULT.
The City Temple failed to turn out its Hustlers for the intermediate boys' game, again as a result of the St. Andrew's last year champions, won by default. A picked team faced the Saints in a friendly game and the champions were badly treated, being defeated by 23-9. The picked side was too fast and too close with its checking to give the Saints a chance to run free.

The teams and individual scores were:
St. Andrew's—C. Smith, B. Addie, A. Tripp, J. Brown, A. Wood and J. McConnell.
Scrubs—J. MacAllister, C. Turner, Hume, D. Newell, S. Jackson and J. Hogg.

Pictorial Golf Instruction

By H. B. MARTIN

Putting Punch in Shot, Necessary for Good Drives

Putting the punch in the shot is important and necessary to make a drive that will average up with the best. The leading golfers know how to get behind the ball, that is, they place the right hand on the club with the knuckles pointing downward. When you are holding the club in this manner you are prepared for delivering a hard blow.

Look at the picture above where the hand and the hammer are shown. If the nail was being driven sideways the knuckles would be pointing downward. In other words, if the hammer was hitting the nail just as the driver hits a golf ball the right hand or the master hand would be in exactly the same position.

This position of the right hand is almost a sure proof against slicing as the punch is directly out in front.

Uplands Members Decide To Provide Water For Fairways

Will Borrow $5,000 and Lay Water Mains; Dusty Course Last Spring Deplored

As the result of a decision reached last night at a special meeting of the Uplands Golf Club, water mains will be laid on the course. The directors were unanimously supported in their proposal to borrow $5,000 for the work. The project will be commenced as soon as the necessary piping is obtained and the system will be ready for use next spring.

The urgent need of water on the course was clearly evident this summer when the fairways were exceedingly dusty through the long drought.

D. A. Macdonald, chairman of the finance committee and mover of the resolution calling for the loan of $5,000, in a brief address pointed out the dire need of water for the club were to be supported by the present membership. He was of the opinion that the green fees would increase at least fifty per cent, and easily take care of the interest and principal of the loan.

D. W. Campbell told of the support he had received from the members with regard to subscribing to a draw loan. He had only visited members of the club, but had received promises exceeding the original amount by some $1,500 or $2,000.

Manager George Deaville of radio station CFCT was last night voted $125 by the City Council for operation of the emergency one month loan from October 21.

Counsel tried to serve his client by casting suspicion on a witness. The first question was:
"You admit that you were at the defendant's house every evening during this period?"
"Yes, sir."

"States whether you and he were interested in any special transaction, business or otherwise."
"Yes, sir, we were."
"Ah!" exclaimed counsel; "then you will be good enough to tell us the nature of the business in which you were jointly interested."
"I was courting his daughter."

Ponies Had Great Drawing Power For Babe Ruth's Money

Billy Evans Tells of Incidents That Happened Between Babe and Horses

Abused Umpire to Get Kicked Off Field Then Ran to Track; Hit When in Trouble

BY BILLY EVANS

Now that Babe Ruth has decided no longer to be "Boob" Ruth to the touts, bookmakers and confidence men, it might be well to get a couple of other incidents out of our system relative to the wild days of the Bambino.

Well, do I recall a certain afternoon in New York when the Babe's plea of sickness didn't get over with Manager Huggins. It happened one of the big running races was carded at Belmont that day.

Before the game Babe had laid a heavy wager on one of the entries in the first race. Just as the game started, some one confided to him that his selection was an also ran. The bet was for something like $1,000.

Failure in the first race merely increased Ruth's desire to get to the race track. He hit safely his first time up, tried to steal second, was called out by Umpire Hildebrand, whereupon he threw a handful of dust into the umpire's eyes.

The umpire chased him. Babe rushed to the clubhouse, made a quick change and was at the race track before the feature event was run.

When he came on the field the next day I asked him if he had had a pleasant time at the track.

"You fussy umpires just caused me an extra $3,500 loss by chasing me. I can't see why Hildebrand should be so particular about that faded out suit of blue he is wearing."

Babe has always been a tough fellow to discipline because he seemed to have the faculty of doing his biggest things just about the time owners and managers were ready to lay on a heavy fine.

The Babe had been in a slump a few years back and for about a week he hadn't been hitting his weight. The club knew that Babe had been stepping out.

At a conference prior to the game in question it was agreed that Babe would be severely disciplined. It seems the task was to fall to Colonel Jake Ruppert, always a great friend and staunch supporter of the Babe. I guess the colonel had carefully rehearsed his speech for the rumor was that Ruth was in for a good lecture in addition to the heavy fine.

That afternoon, the Babe in a double header against Washington, made these heavy runs. The colonel called off the lecture and fine.

Babe Ruth is a most likeable chap. He has many sterling qualities. His greatest fault has been being too good a fellow.

Ruth should be worth at least a half million dollars, but he isn't. What money he has lost to friends and enemies in need would be a snug fortune if repaid.

I hope Ruth is sincere in his determination to reform. He is cutting out of fair weather friends, who pay homage to Ruth because he pays the way, is all he needs.

Baseball needs colorful players like Ruth. The big fellow has made money for the club owners, made lots of it. When the owners make money they are far more generous in naming salaries for stars other than Ruth.

World Court Judge Traces Development of Judicial Power

Toronto, Nov. 11.—Introduced by Sir Robert Falconer as "probably the most outstanding authority on international law on the continent and Judge of the World Court at the Hague," John Bassett Moore gave the first of the Marfleet lectures in Convocation Hall. His subject was "The Nature of Judicial Power Operating within the Municipal or National Sphere," and his address was punctuated with anecdotes, illustrations and reminiscences. At the conclusion he was rewarded with great applause.

Showing the importance of judicial power, Judge Moore stated that Anglo-Saxons have a conception of the functions and powers of courts beyond that which other people have and as a result our courts exercise

Home-made Supply of Fine Cough Syrup

Better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $2. Easily prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known remedy, cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made and saves easily $2. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. MANSON BUNGLED JANET SMITH CASE. SAYS HINCHLIFFE

Victoria Member Assails All Government's Works in Lengthy Address

Absentee Ballot, Rate Fight,
University Costs, Taxation
and Log Export Attacked

The Janet Smith case forced its way into the Legislature yesterday when Joshua Hinchliffe, Conservative, Victoria, accused Attorney-General Manson of bungling his investigations into the abduction of Wong Sing, houseboy in the home where the murdered Scottish housegirl lived. This charge Mr. Manson vigorously denied, but Mr. Hinchliffe persisted in it and, in the course of a speech more than two hours long, assailed the Government and all its works, from the absentee ballot to the freight rate fight. Only by the aid of such a government, the Victoria member concluded, could British Columbia hope to secure prosperity and honesty in public affairs.

Mr. Hinchliffe protested at the opening of his speech against hasty consideration of business by the Legislature, and announced that so far as he was concerned the House would remain in session long enough to make possible careful handling of any matter of business requiring attention.

The Victoria member picked the King's Speech to pieces paragraph by paragraph. He objected in the first place to its reference to prosperity in British Columbia when, as a matter of fact, signs of prosperity were hard to find.

QUESTIONS RATE FIGHT

The speaker confessed that he could see little use in the Government's fight for equalized freight rates. He quoted Sir Henry Drayton, former chairman of the Railway Board, as asserting that in recent years western Canadian consumers had paid less per ton-mile in freight rates than the eastern consumer. Before going any further with the rate fight, he said, the Government should find out the truth of Sir Henry's statements.

He quoted also a speech by J. W. de H. Parris, in which the former British Columbia Attorney-General declared that if Premier Mackenzie King were not given support here he would drop his efforts to bring about rate equalization. As Mr. King had not received this support it was to be expected that he would do nothing more about rates, said Mr. Hinchliffe.

"What's the use of going any further then with the fight?" he demanded.

He quoted Premier Oliver as hinting during the recent federal campaign that if British Columbia did not get better treatment in transportation costs it might be better outside Confederation. The Premier, he declared, had no authority from the House for this statement, and the electors had shown in the recent poll that they had no sympathy for any such proposal.

Speaking of the announcement in the King's Speech that more money would be needed for forest protection, the member predicted that it would be taken from the taxpayers, who had to bear the burden of the reduced timber royalties of last session and not from the American operators who were taking British Columbia logs to the United States to be manufactured.

UNIVERSITY COSTS

He warned the Government that the University over-commitment issue was not going to be allowed to die in the public accounts committee, but would be brought back to the House.

The Premier says it is only an error," he commented, "but it was a very costly error and of a type altogether common with this Government. Think of the error at Sumas where an undertaking estimated to cost $1,000,000 has now cost $3,000,000. Since the Government has to ask the Legislature for the money to pay for its University error, it can't for very shame ask for the money to pay for the Sumas error, so the poor farmers have to bear the burden of that. Then there was the Southern Okanagan error, also costing several millions, which, taken with these other errors, show gross incompetence and carelessness on the part of the Ministers."

ATTACKS MANSON

Mr. Hinchliffe said that he found inconsistencies between the utterances and performances of the present Attorney-General, the third by whom the present Premier had in his time been beset. He had denounced the brewers as a terrible incubus on the Province, and had then paid them a quarter of a million dollars more than they were entitled to in the purchase of beer.

Last year, in a speech ringing with apparent sincerity, he had told what he was doing with the Janet Smith case, and then had gone out and hired an amateur detective, in M. B. Jackson, as special investigator of that case.

"That shows how sincere he was," said Mr. Hinchliffe.

"Do you question my sincerity?" asked Mr. Manson.

"Not a bit, but I can't reconcile the spirit of that speech with the action that followed. The Premier's defence in the Yamamoto case was very weak, but in the abduction case the Attorney-General gave evidence the other day that Robinson had come to him with a proposition to abduct the Chinese and that he had properly put his foot down. That was fine if the matter ended there, but shortly afterwards the Chinese was abducted and the Attorney-General issued an order for an airplane to pursue a vessel on its way to China to try and find him. The man was held for six weeks while the Attorney-General held the clue to the secret of where he was being held and by whom."

ON THE TRAIL

Mr. Manson intervened to say that suspicion fell on Robinson from the outset and that his officers were on the trail within a few hours.

"It is true that they didn't succeed for a time," he said, "but eventually they did succeed in liberating the Chinaman and in getting the conviction of Robinson."

"There was a lack of intelligent and earnest work on the part of the responsible officials," declared Mr. Hinchliffe, "when all the time they held in their possession information that Robinson intended to abduct Wong."

"We also had information that another organization intended to do the same thing," replied the Attorney-General. "There was not one clue, but several clues."

DOUKHOBOR TROUBLES

Mr. Hinchliffe then launched into a lengthy attack on the Government for the alleged cruelty of its police in seizing Doukhobors' goods to pay fines levied upon them. He read a letter from a Doukhobor who called the police "the mob" and the "executioners," and told how they had even seized a Doukhobor flourmill, taking away the settlers' last morsel of bread.

Mr. Manson objected to this recital, which he said was utterly untrue. Mr. Hinchliffe persisted in his attack, however, and declared that it would make tampering of this kind impossible.

Export of raw logs from the Province was condemned by Mr. Hinchliffe, who charged the Government with permitting the "spoliation" of British Columbia by the United States.

The DOOR to the FUTURE

TO-DAY there are prophets—more than at any time in the world's history.

They are found in big business institutions, for big institutions are built on the faith and vision of far-seeing men. While other men around them work in 1925, these business prophets work, by habit of thought and training, in the future—five, ten, yes, twenty or twenty-five years ahead of the times.

They are the men who are planning new applications of science and industry: perfecting new processes, new products, new appliances—not for today, but for the time when public service will demand them.

In the research department of the Northern Electric Company there is a door through which the men of this engineering organization are always trying to peer.

It is the door to the Future Electrical Age.

Our products of today are the result of their efforts in peering through that door. Products which will appear on the market perhaps tomorrow, perhaps five or ten years hence—these have already crossed the vision of the prophets who peered through that magic door and saw the needs of this and future generations.

AT THE THEATRES

TWO THOUSAND WERE INTERVIEWED FOR EXTRA PARTS

The national costumes of the tiny principality of Montenegro—now a part of Yugoslavia, and without identity as a nation—were duplicated for "The Merry Widow," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production at the Dominion Theatre all this week.

Many of the scenes in the picture which is a modern version of the famous stage play by Victor Leon, Leo Stein and Franz Lehár and produced by Henry W. Savage, show large crowds of peasants, and the studio costume department spent many days in designing the actual costumes worn by the people of that Balkan state.

Many of the extras who appeared in the scenes, are actually natives of the Balkan states, anxious to achieve the atmosphere of the story as nearly as possible. Von Stroheim personally interviewed some 2,000 extras from among whom he engaged whole families of Roumanians, Serbians and Bulgarians to appear in the big scenes.

The national costumes of the Montenegrins were rather gaudy affairs. The women wore brightly colored, very full dresses, with many fancy designs of hats. The men wore either full, baggy, red trousers, with boots, or green semi-uniforms with much fancy braid, knickers and white stockings.

DIRECTOR MAKES OWN SETS IN BIG PHILBIN PICTURE

Svend Gade, Danish director of "Fifth Avenue Models," Universal-Jewel starring Mary Philbin, will be screened in the Playhouse Theatre all week, is skeptical as to the manner in which picture patrons will react to the futuristic treatment of sets and scenery that is already accepted in Europe.

Before becoming a director, Gade was a designer in Europe. The production is the first picture he has directed on this continent, and besides directing, Gade designed some of the decorations and furnishings of the magnificent sets used in what is a lavish production.

This picture was adapted from "The Best in Life," a recent best seller written by Muriel Hine, which tells in a dramatic, romantic way the love story between two persons as far removed by environment as the two poles.

Norman Kerry has the male lead. Others in the cast are Josef Swickard, William Conklin, Rosemary Theby, Rose Dione, Betty Francisco, Ruth Stonehouse, Helen Lynch, Robert Browder, Jean Herbold, George B. Williams, Mike Donlin, Bob McKenzie and Lee Moran.

MOVIES' GREATEST BATTLES IS NOW IN CAPITOL FILM

Astronomer, horticulturist, psychologist, mathematician, pianist—these are a few of the accomplishments of Milton Sills, who appears this week at the Capitol Theatre in the stellar role in "The Knockout," a First National attraction.

Sills gives one of the finest fight performances of his screen career in this picture, battling professional pugilists and a giant lumber camp boss. He risks his life during his fight in the turbulent waters of a Canadian river in "The Knockout," a determination.

This same spirit is shown in his life off the screen, for he becomes interested in a subject and does not stop until he has mastered it. He is well versed in astronomy, noted for his horticultural accomplishments, has taught psychology and appeared in concert as a pianist.

WILL MARSHALL IS WELCOMED BACK ON COLISEUM STAGE

Will Marshall's return to the Coliseum this week after two weeks' rest has been welcomed by his many admirers. Last night after he led the company in one of the rousing choruses in "The Boy," Pinero's best comedy in which he takes the title role and incidentally one of the best he has ever appeared in in Victoria, he received an ovation. During the performance a neat little package was handed on the stage addressed to Marshall and on opening it was delighted to acknowledge a gift of a handsome silver cigarette case with his name engraved upon it subscribed for by some of the close friends he has made during his appearances in the Coliseum stock company.

A splendid cast, headed by Madge Bellamy and Kenneth Harlan, two of the most popular young players on the screen, interprets the action of "On the Stroke of Three," at the Coliseum. This is the first production turned out for P.B.O. by Associated Arts, and gives great promise for the rest of the series which this organization will make. The story of "On the Stroke of Three" is an adaptation of the novel, "The Man From Ashland," by Henry Payson Dowd, and Philip Loneragan has cleverly adapted this interesting tale to the screen. Names to conjure with are liberally sprinkled through the cast, including Mary Carr, John Miljan, Eddie Phillips, Robert Dudley, Dorothy Damm and Edward Davis. F. Harmon Wright directed the production.

COMING IN "BLOSSOM TIME"

Miss Mary Powell, as the charming "Mitt," and William Seelery as the Jolly court jester Franz, appearing in "Blossom Time," which returns for a three-day show at the Royal Victoria Theatre, commencing Thursday, November 19.

A pitched battle and bronco busting for thrills. As an added embellishment, incidentally one of the most exciting scenes in the play, is the pursuit of an irate father after his eloping daughter and her about-to-be husband.

"BLOSSOM TIME" OPERETTA HERE ON NOVEMBER 19

"Blossom Time," the most charming and most successful creation of its kind which the stage has seen in many a year, will again be heard in this city when on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with a Saturday matinee November 19, 20, 21, the Messrs. Schubert will present it for a return engagement at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

This delightful operetta based on the love story of Franz Schubert, the great composer, and with humorous of his compositions forming the musical background, has set a standard for this style of entertainment. It has a whimsicality, blunders and delicacy of conception, aside from its beautiful music, that make their own pronounced appeal.

In "Blossom Time," Franz Schubert's music has been admirably adapted by Sigmond Romberg, and there are melodies by H. Berte. The choicest of Schubert's music—the lovely Serenade, the Moment Musical, Ave Maria, and the themes of the "Symphony"—which find voice in the operetta's chief numbers—"The Song of Love," "Love is a Riddle," "Tell Me Daisy," "Lonely Hearts," "My Springtime Thou Art," and "Let Me Awake," are all melodies too familiar to need comment.

"The company presenting 'Blossom Time' is a capable one, and above all it is an admirable singing organization. The staging of the piece is in keeping with its story—one of the most wonderful love stories ever written—and its music. 'Blossom Time' may be said to be an operetta redolent with charm and sure to please the most fastidious music lover and theatre goer.

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

THE TIME-WORN TOWN By J. S. Fletcher

"Was the door closed?"
 "The door was closed."
 "But you say you heard voices?"
 "I heard voices—within."
 "Whose voices?"
 "That I can't say. I couldn't distinguish them."
 "Well, did you hear the Mayor's voice?"
 "I tell you I couldn't distinguish any voice. There were two people talking inside the Mayor's Parlor, anyway, in loud voices. It seemed to me that they were both talking at the same time—in fact, I thought—"

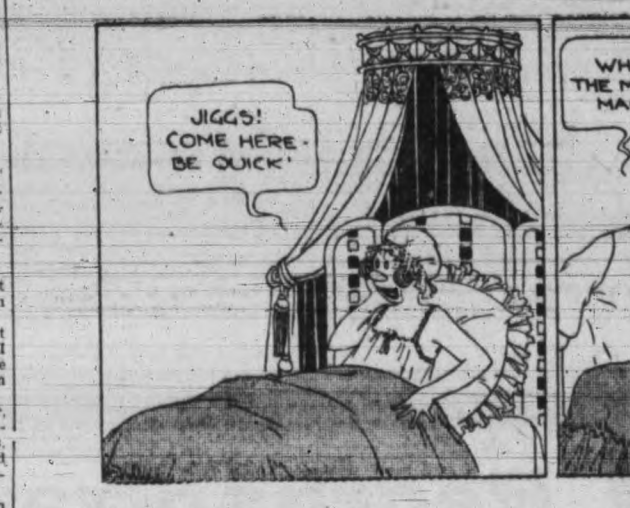

"What did you think?" demanded Meeking, as Mrs. Mallett paused.
 "Well, I thought that whoever they were, the two people were quarrelling; the voices were loud, lifted, angry, I thought."
 "And yet you couldn't distinguish them?"
 "No, I couldn't. I might have recognised the Mayor's voice, perhaps, if I'd gone closer to the door and listened, but I didn't stay. As soon as I heard what I told you of—I went straight back."
 "By the same way? To Dr. Wellesley's drawing-room?"
 "Yes."
 "What happened then?"
 "I told Dr. Wellesley that the Mayor had somebody with him and that they appeared to be having high words, and as I didn't want to stop, he suggested that I should come again next evening. Then I went home."
 "In the same way—by the private door in Piper's Passage?"
 "Exactly."
 "Did Dr. Wellesley go downstairs with you and let you out?"
 "He did."
 "See anybody on that occasion?"
 "No, on one."
 "Meeking paused, and after a glance round at the table at which he was standing, looked at his notes.
 "Now, Mrs. Mallett, he said presently, 'what time was this—I mean, when you left Dr. Wellesley's?'"
 "A little before a quarter to eight. The clock struck the quarter just after I got into my house."
 "And where is your house?"
 "Next door to the Moot Hall. Dr. Wellesley's house is on one side of the Moot Hall; ours is on the other."
 "It would take you a very short time, then, to go home?"
 "A minute or two."
 "Very well. And you went to Dr. Wellesley's at seven-thirty?"
 "Just about that."
 "Then you were with him, most of the time you were there, in his drawing-room?"
 "Certainly—all the time except for the two or three minutes spent in going to the Mayor's Parlor."
 "Talking to Dr. Wellesley?"
 "Of course! What do you suppose I went for?"
 "That's just what I want to find out," retorted Meeking, with a glance that took in the audience, now all agog with excitement. "Will you tell us, Mrs. Mallett."
 Mrs. Mallett's handsome face became rigid, and her well-cut lips fixed themselves in a straight line. But she relaxed them to rap out one word.
 "No."
 "Come, now, Mrs. Mallett, this is a serious, a very serious enquiry. It is becoming more serious the more it becomes mysterious, and it is becoming increasingly mysterious. You have already told us that you went, secretly, to Dr. Wellesley's house in that just then Wallingford spent almost every evening in the Mayor's Parlor."

 "If you ever visited him in the Mayor's Parlor during these evening attendances of his?"
 "Oh, yes—several times!"
 "By this communicating door?"
 "Certainly. And he made use of it in coming to see me."
 "Do you know what the Mayor was doing on these occasions? I mean, do you know why he spent so much time at the Mayor's Parlor of an evening?"
 "Yes. He was going as thoroughly as he could into the financial affairs of the Corporation."
 "Now I want to put a very particular question to you—with the object of getting to some solution of this mystery. What was Mrs. Mallett's business with you and the Mayor?"
 "I cannot reply to that."
 "You won't give me an answer?"
 "I won't."
 "Do you base your refusal on professional privilege, Doctor?"
 "No, not at all. Mrs. Mallett's business was of an absolutely private nature. It had nothing whatever to do with the subject of this enquiry; I tell you that on my honor, on my oath—Nothing whatever!"
 "You mean—directly?"
 "Meeking threw a good deal of significance into this question, which he put slowly and with a peculiarly meaning glance at his witness. But Wellesley either did not see, or affected not to see, any significance, and his answer came promptly.
 "I mean precisely what I say—as I always do."
 Meeking leaned across the table, eyeing Wellesley still more closely.
 "Do you think, knowing all that you do now, that it had anything to do with it indirectly? Indirectly?"
 Self-controlled, though the was, Wellesley could not repress a start of surprise at this question. It was obviously unexpected, and it seemed to those who, like Brent and Tansley, were watching him narrowly, that he was considerably taken aback by it. He hesitated.
 "I want an answer to that," said Meeking, after a pause.

BRINGING UP FATHER

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried peppin, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little Bisulphate of Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, or milk, but the pure Bisulphate of Magnesia, which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or three compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little Bisulphate of Magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and, moreover, the continued use of the Bisulphate of Magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.
